Power Of Written Words:

Oral-Scribal Dimensions of Scripture, Piety, and Practice Werner H. Kelber, Paula A. Sanders, 2016-09-30 In April 2008 a conference was convened at Rice University that brought together experts in the three monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam The papers discussed at the conference are presented here revised and updated The thirteen contributions comprise the keynote address by John Miles Foley three essays on Judaism and the Hebrew Bible three on the New Testament three on the Qur'an and two summarizing pieces by the Africanist Ruth Finnegan and the Islamicist William Graham respectively The central thesis of the book states that sacred Scripture was experienced by the three faiths less as a text contained between two covers and a literary genre and far more as an oral phenomenon In developing the performative recitative aspects of the three religions the authors directly or by implication challenge their distinctly textual identities Instead of viewing the three faiths as quintessential religions of the book these writers argue that the religions have been and continue to be appropriated not only as written but also very much as oral authorities with the two media interpenetrating and mutually influencing each other in myriad ways

New Directions in the History of the Novel P. Parrinder, A. Nash, N. Wilson, 2014-02-25 New Directions in the History of the Novel challenges received views of literary history and sets out new areas for research A re-examination of the nature of prose fiction in English and its study from the Renaissance to the 21st century it will become required reading for teachers and students of the novel and its history

Silence, the Word and the Sacred E.D. Blodgett, Harold Coward, 2010-10-30 The result of a dialogue between poets and scholars on the meaning and making of the sacred this book endeavours to determine how the sacred emerges in sacred script as well as in poetic discourse It ranges through scholarship in areas as apparently disparate as postmodernism and Buddhism The perspectives developed are various and without closure locating the sacred in modes as diverse as patristic traditions feminist retranslations of biblical texts and oral and written versions of documents from the world's religions The essays cohere in their preoccupation with the crucial role language plays in the creation of the sacred particularly in the relation that language bears to silence In their interplay language does not silence silence by rather calls the other as sacred into articulate existence

Warriors Lincoln C. Yamashita, 2011-11 Warriors Pu Ali Koa explores the history of how the Hawaiians established their culture and lifestyle while also chronicling historical events of the twentieth century While researching the history of Hawaii author Lincoln Yamashita realized that the role of the warrior in Hawaiian history had not been properly documented To provide a complete and accurate portrait of the warrior he determined that it was essential to document the role of Warrior Spirit the legacy of Hawaiian culture and the history of the Hawaiian nation Many of the stories of the Hawaiian warriors have been passed down from generation to generation through oral storytelling Yamashita has gathered the historical stories of the great warriors into this single volume Warriors Pu Ali

Koa documents a history that is vital to the cultural fabric of the forty ninth state For example the legacy of the Hawaii Army National Guard began with the first Polynesians who originated in Southeast Asia The Ancient Ones traveled over 2 300 miles from their homeland northward to the islands of Hawai i There they established a culture and language that are unique to these islands These early warriors and those who followed them have made Hawai i what it is today beautiful exotic and true to their native culture and homeland

Two Worlds Unity Handbook of Self Awareness Ken Sykes,2012-12-06 The life we make Reflects the truth of who we are The only things in the universe we can control are our choices By making choices we decide who we are and develop our truth this determines everything else in our life Choices can be based on our beliefs and conditioning and well suffer the emotional stress which goes with them Or we can choose to be self aware realise our higher truth and live in peace and joy Which do you choose The first rule for achieving self awareness is to seek experiential guidance So if you wish to discover yourself and grow spiritually herein you may find light to illuminate your experiences Make no mistake this is not for the faint hearted But it can change your life Trust in yourself listen to your heart and feel self love Questions about the book Contact me at twoworldsunity gmail com Visit us on Facebook The Principles of Dynamics.
