Power And Place In The North American West:

Making Space on the Western Frontier W. Paul Reeve, 2010-10-01 Until recently most scholarly work on Chinese music in both Chinese and Western languages has focused on genres musical structure and general history and concepts rather than on the musicians themselves This volume breaks new ground by focusing on individual musicians active in different amateur and professional music scenes in mainland China Hong Kong and Chinese communities in Europe Using biography to deepen understanding of Chinese music contributors present contextualized portraits of rural folk singers urban opera singers literati and musicians on both geographic and cultural frontiers Contributors are Nimrod Baranovitch Rachel Harris Frank Kouwenhoven Tong Soon Lee Peter Micic Helen Rees Antoinet Schimmelpenninck Shao Binsun Jonathan P J Stock and Bell William Clark's World Peter J. Kastor, 2011-01-01 By examining the life and career of William Clark this book explores how the North American West entered the American imagination Clark was among the most important western officials of his generation and he worked to represent the West during a period of tremendous uncertainty and change Without ever calling himself a writer or an artist Clark nonetheless drew maps helped to produce books drafted lengthy reports surveyed the landscape and wrote numerous journals that made sense of the West and its future for Americans who were fascinated by the region s potential but also fearful of its dangers William Clark s World situates the descriptive words and pictures created by Clark and his contemporaries at the center of a discussion of western history and cultural development The book casts new light on the familiar narrative of manifest destiny and on the nation s view of the West in Power and Place in the North American West Richard White, John M. the early nineteenth century Book Jacket Findlay, 2012-09-01 Western historians continue to seek new ways of understanding the particular mixture of physical territory human actions outside influences and unique expectations that has made the North American West what it is today This collection of twelve essays tackles the subject of power and place from several angles Indians and non Indians race and gender environment and economy to gain insight into major forces at work during two centuries of western history The essays related to one another by their concern with how power is exercised in over and by western places cover a wide range of times and topics from 18th century Spanish New Mexico to 19th century British Columbia to 20th century Sun Valley and Los Angeles They encompass analyses of the concept and rhetoric of race theoretical speculations on gender and powerlessness and insights on the causes of current environmental crises Engineering ,1890 Annual Report United States. Western Area Power Administration. Superconducting Super Collider Site Selection, 1988 Battle Mountain District, Mule Canyon Mine ,1996 California and the Fictions of Capital George L. Henderson, 2003 In part a tour of California as a virtual laboratory for refining the circulation of capital and in part an investigation of how the state s literati with rare exception reconceived economy in the name of class gender and racial privilege this study will appeal to all students and scholars of California s And The American West s economic environmental and cultural past Author note George

L Hendersonis Professor of Geography at the University of Minnesota Red Lodge and the Mythic West Bonnie Christensen, 2002 Tracing the story of Red Lodge from the 1880s to the present Christensen tells how a mining town managed to endure the vagaries of the West's unpredictable extractive industries economy. She connects Red Lodge to a myriad of larger events and historical forces to show how national and regional influences have contributed to the development of local identities exploring how and why westerners first rejected and then embraced western images and how ethnicity wilderness and historic preservation became part of the identity that defined one town BOOK JACKET National Magazine; A Monthly Journal of American History ,1888 Western Aerospace ,1949 Upper Ohio River Basin, Hydroelectric Development (OH,PA,WV) Lumberman .1899 Who Owns Whom ,2005 .1988 Energy International .1972 Cabinet .2006 Conan Meets the Academy Jonas Prida, 2012-12-04 Robert E Howard penned a series of fantasy stories in 1932 featuring Conan a hulking warrior from Cimmeria who roamed the mythical Hyborian Age landscape engaging in heroic adventures More than the quirky manifestation of Depression era magazines Conan the Barbarian has endured as a cultural mainstay for over 70 years This multidisciplinary collection offers the first scholarly investigation of Conan from Howard's early stories through midcentury novels and Arnold Schwarzenegger s iconic films to the 2011 cinematic remake of Conan the Barbarian Drawing on disciplines such as stylometry archeology cultural and folklore studies and literary history the essays examine statistical analyses of the words in Conan texts the literary genesis of Conan later day parodies Conan video games and much more This volume reveals the hidden scholarly depth of this seemingly unsophisticated fictional character The Spectator ,1898 Engineering News and American Railway Journal ,1898 Capturing the South Scott L. Matthews, 2018-10-26 In his expansive history of documentary work in the South during the twentieth century Scott L Matthews examines the motivations and methodologies of several pivotal documentarians including sociologist Howard Odum photographers Jack Delano and Danny Lyon and music ethnographer John Cohen Their work salvaged and celebrated folk cultures threatened by modernization or strived to reveal and reform problems linked to the region s racial caste system and exploitative agricultural economy Images of alluring primitivism and troubling pathology often blurred together neutralizing the aims of documentary work carried out in the name of reform during the Progressive era New Deal and civil rights movement Black and white southerners in turn often resisted documentarians attempts to turn their private lives into public symbols The accumulation of these influential and occasionally controversial documentary images created an enduring complex and sometimes self defeating mythology about the South that persists into the twenty first century
