Power Maps Comparative Politics Of Constitutions:

Power Maps: Comparative Politics of Constitutions Ivo D. Duchacek, 1973 The Politics of Constitutional Change in Industrial Nations Richard Simeond, 1985-06-24 During the last two decades serious attempts to alter basic constitutional structures have taken place in many industrial nations even in those often thought to have highly stable political institutions In some cases such as Belgium and Spain far reaching constitutional changes have been put in place in others advocates of reform have achieved only partial victories or have been entirely frustrated In all cases controversy over the constitution has been intense involving basic conceptions of legitimacy representation sovereignty and the purposes of the state Constitutional politics often reveals much about political life of modern societies that is obscured in day to day events The results of constitutional changes can significantly affect the distribution of power the ability to manage conflict and the outcomes of policy debates This book explores the dynamics of constitutional politics through case studies of Spain Belgium Canada the United Kingdom the United States West Germany and Eastern Europe including Poland prepared by leading students of these countries Other chapters draw out the more general patterns of constitutional politics highlighting the pressures which lead to change and the formidable obstacles confronting them Prospects for Constitutionalism in Post-Communist Countries Levent Gönenç, 2002-06-18 The last decade of the 20th century saw radical changes in Eastern Europe and the former USSR Most of these countries made a transition from totalitarianism or authoritarianism to democracy and from central planning to a market economy Adding to the latter a number of national entities gained their independence after the disintegration of the federative states of the USSR Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia Many recent studies have focused on these double in some cases triple transitions and scholars from different fields analyzed the so called 1989 Revolution from different perspectives Rather less scholarly attention has been paid to the future of post communist constitutions and prospects for constitutionalism in these countries The main questions dealt with throughout this study can be formulated as follows Will liberal democratic constitutionalism take root in these countries Will new constitutions in Eastern Europe and the former USSR perish or survive This study also aims at contributing to the construction of a general constitutional theory by studying the causes and dynamics of constitutional change in general Such constitutional change is not only on the East European but also on the West European agenda The purpose of this study is not to introduce a general theory about constitutional in stability but studying post communist constitutions will help us to understand the causes and dynamics of constitutional change from a broader perspective Democratic Consolidation in Eastern Europe: Volume 1: Institutional Engineering Jan Zielonka, 2001-06-14 This is the first volume in a series of books on democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe The series focuses on three major aspects of democratic consolidation in Eastern Europe institutional engineering transnational pressures and civil society This first volume analyses constraints on and opportunities of institutional engineering in Eastern Europe to what extent and how elites in Eastern Europe have been able to shape if not manipulate the politics of democratic consolidation through institutional means The aim is to contrast a set of democracy theories with empirical evidence accumulated in Eastern Europe over the last ten years The volume tries to avoid complex debates about definitions methods and the uses and misuses of comparative research Instead it tries to establish what has really happened in the region and which of the existing theories have proved helpful in explaining these developments The volume starts with a presentation of conceptual and comparative frameworks followed by in depth empirical analyses of the thirteen individual countries undergoing democratic consolidation The first conceptual and comparative part contains three chapters The first chapter explains what institutional engineering is about and describes our experiences with institutional engineering in former transitions to democracy It also focuses on the import and export of institutional designs The second chapter analyses the utility of constitutions in the process of democratic consolidation The third chapter compares constitutional designs and problems of implementation in Southern and Eastern Europe The empirical case studies deal with the following countries Estonia Latvia Lithuania Bulgaria Romania Ukraine Russia Belarus the Czech Republic Slovakia Slovenia Hungary and Poland And the conclusions evaluate the enormous impact of institutions on politics in Eastern Europe and show how central constitutional designs are to the institutional engineering in the societies undergoing transitions to democracy

Transformative Constitutionalism and Kenya Gautam Bhatia, 2025-06-10 A key book about rights separation of powers and the State which assesses a decade and a half of transformative constitutionalism in Kenya through the lens of landmark constitutional judgments discussing their international import and suggesting new pathways towards democratic constitutionalism In 2010 after more than two decades of struggle Kenya's new Constitution was born Widely accepted to be transformative in nature in the decade and a half since it was enacted the Constitution has been at the centre of national discourse And in that time the country's courts have been confronted with crucial and high stakes constitutional disputes which are both distinctively Kenyan in nature but also are disputes that have long been common to constitutional democracies around the world they include issues around constitutional change federalism imperial presidencies the role of the legislature election disputes land rights and horizontality among others Drawing comparisons with constitutional jurisdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other's jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order risdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other s jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order s It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order risdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other s jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan
