from real people who have ridden themselves lean Ride of a Lifetime Sandy Hawley, Perry Lefko, 2005 In the world of thoroughbred racing and certainly in the chronicles of Canadian sports diminutive Sandy Hawley stands tall as a legend admired as much for his class as his riding ability The native of Oshawa Ontario became one of the greatest jockeys of his generation graduating from his Canadian roots to become one of the best in North America Hawley rode for a thirty year period during which he won 6 449 of 31 445 races including a record tying four Queens Plate Canadas premier horse race His mounts earned in the excess of 88 million which placed him in the top 10 overall when he retired in 1998 He won the Eclipse Award the equivalent of the Oscars North Americas top jockey twice was named the winner of the Lour Marsh Award as Canadas top athlete previous to him no jockey had ever been a recipient and received the order of Canada Yet Sandy Hawleys story is not all about glory celebrity and wins He suffered two failed marriages which drained much of his income and had his financial status impacted severely by income tax problems He also waged a battle to extricate himself from a contract that threatened his career just when it started to soar But by far his biggest challenge became a battle with melanoma a form of skin cancer He successfully overcame and ultimately beat the disease yet even more impressive was his resolve and determination to ride again For the racing aficionados this book captures all the great moments that made Hawley a star that has stood the test of time But more than anything its a depiction of a person his successes and his failures and more than anything his humanity Special Ops Orr Kelly, 2017-08-08 Four military histories from a writer whose fine work should be of great interest both to casual readers and to uniformed students of special ops Publishers Weekly An expert in military affairs Orr Kelly reveals the cutting edge technology and jaw dropping courage of the US military s elite forces on land sea and air Brave Men Dark Waters Originating in World War II as Underwater Demolition Teams the Navy SEALs are the best of the best in the armed forces known for their toughness and fearlessness and their remarkable ability to get the job any job done Facing America s enemies across the globe these modern warriors were the first to enter the fight in Vietnam Panama Grenada and Iraq Brave Men Dark Waters is the most complete in depth study of this fabled elite unit Library Journal Never Fight Fair Here in their own words are the true accounts of the US Navy SEALs from their formation in World War II to the jungles of Vietnam to the deserts of Iraq In this riveting oral history these brave men speak openly about their training and their missions offering the uncensored inspiring and sometimes shocking truth about their combat triumphs and their rare but devastating failures Hornet Born in 1978 the McDonnell Douglas F A 18 Hornet has forever changed the way America s wars are fought This is the fascinating true story of the controversial development and deployment of the state of the art supersonic fighter and attack aircraft with a top speed of more than one thousand miles per hour Kelly details how Hornet came to be how it was nearly doomed by an unprecedented political battle and how it has served ably in combat from its first mission in Libya to Operation Desert Storm and well beyond From a Dark Sky Very little is known about US Air Force Special Operations yet their exploits have been as daring and their achievements as remarkable as anything accomplished by their brother warriors Since World War II these ultrasecretive air commandos have routinely performed the nearly impossible from providing air support for partisans in Nazi occupied France to participating in clandestine CIA operations in Vietnam and Cambodia to secretly inserting covert operatives into North Korea From a Dark Sky is a well conceived and well executed well deserved tribute to an uncommonly fine body of American warriors Booklist
