A horn is an instrument either for protection or destruction The horn in the Horn of Africa has for so long turned inward and on its people thus victimizing those it was supposed to defend The ensuing internecine bloodletting has thrown the region into an abyss out of which it is still struggling to emerge Much of the story of this abyss is captured in social political economic and literary treatises written by indigenous and international experts Rarely however has there been a single volume that brings together keen analyses of the expressive arts of Djibouti Eritrea Ethiopia Somalia and Sudan The Road Less Traveled is the first book of its kind It brings together in the same volume essays on the literatures of the Horn of Africa written by renowned regional and international scholars All the countries in the region their major writers and the genres through which the people in the Horn express themselves are given careful attention The volume also includes essays that traverse borders and or transgress generic delineations delimitations The essays in the volume attest to a simple fact namely that through the arts humans weave a labyrinthine system of symbolic representations that bear witness to lives lived or imagined And while in the Horn of Africa catastrophes may abound the calamity that besets this region can equally be explained through its antiphony the perseverance and cosmic albeit cautious optimism of its people A horn after all is also a way of making music ALA Bulletin ,2001 American Lumberman ,1889 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record ,1899 The Church Missionary Intelligencer ,1899 Exemplary State Rail Programming and Planning Leigh B.
