Right View Right Life:

Human Rights and Religious Values, 1995 Sects and new religious movements Religions and the Truth Hendrik M Vroom, 1990 Insight Dialogue Gregory Kramer, 2007-09-11 Insight Dialogue is a way of bringing the tranquility and insight attained in meditation directly into your interactions with other people. It's a practice that involves interacting with a partner in a retreat setting or on your own as a way of accessing a profound kind of insight. Then you take that insight on into the grind of everyday human interactions. Gregory Kramer has been teaching the practice which he originated for more than a decade in retreats around the world. It's something strikingly new in the world of Buddhist practice yet it's completely grounded in traditional Buddhist teaching. Kramer begins with a detailed presentation of the central Buddhist teaching of the Four Noble Truths seen through an interpersonal lens. Because dukkha (suffering or unsatisfactoriness) is often most forcefully felt in our relations with others, interpersonal relationships are a wonderfully useful place to practice. He breaks the Noble Truths down into component parts to observe how they manifest particularly in relationship to others using examples from his own life and practice as well as from his students. He then goes on to present the practice as it's taught in his workshops and retreats. There are a few basic steps to the practice: deceptively simple to describe: 1. pause 2. relax 3. open 4. trust 5. emergence 6. listen deeply and 7. speak the truth. The sequence begins following a period of meditation and includes periods of speaking, listening, and mutual silence. Kramer includes numerous examples of people's experience with the practice from his retreats and shows how the insight gained from the techniques can be brought into real life. More than just testimonials for how well the practice works, the personal stories demonstrate the problems that arise, the different routes the practice can follow, and the sometimes surprising insights that are gained.

Milestones of the Way: How East Meets West to Enrich Your Life Reverend Paul Lachlan Peck, 2011-07-15 Author Reverend Paul Lachlan Peck believes that millstones can be turned into milestones that adverse experiences can become opportunities for spiritual growth and magnificent manifestations. By listening to the small voice of Spirit, God, you too can overcome the millstones in your own life. Peck explores the intriguing ideas and puzzling questions of New Age teachings in this revised volume originally titled Intermediate Spiritual Metaphysics. By examining the positive forces that manifest throughout the four major quadrants of life: health, wealth, work, and love, Peck also shows how these forces work within the four primary institutions: church, finance, government, and education. The Judaic-Christian student of New Age theology will find answers to complex spiritual questions in this easy-to-read book that has been divided into the following three sections: Part One considers dharma, karma, reincarnation, and life between lives; Part Two discusses the governance, authority, and responsibility of the universe; Part Three devotes itself to the Revelation of St. John the Divine, the teachings that relate to daily spiritual life. Milestones of the Way will provide you with an empowerment that heals and ultimately advances you on a path toward spiritual contentment.
