William Wilson Bremner, 1886 Say My Name Linda Rogers, 2000 Say My Name is a fictional account of the life of a young Cowichan man who took his own life There are too many like him who die of invisibility the plague that came in the same blankets as smallpox Linda Rogers determined to grieve her friend in the name of all who have died because their identity has been taken away by contact with European culture Indian reserves and residential schools Say My Name written in the voice of Charlie Louie is the naming of him It records the terrible sadnesses but also the great tenacity of a people who will be seen and heard and the sense of irony that helps them deal with an unsympathetic culture Say My Name is funny and sad a story offered with tenderness and affection by the mother who lost Charlie and found him again in his own words Publisher's description The Lost Sentinel Emma L. Adams, They say the country of Zeuten no longer has any need for heroes

Quests have been completed the great Powers have withdrawn from the world and the Sentinels who guard the last Relics are largely forgotten Unlike their neighbours in the country of Aestin whose Invokers wield the magic of the deities in exchange for glory and prestige they leave the gods alone and the gods extend the same courtesy to them When Zeuten's last Sentinel disappears Zelle her granddaughter intends to track her down Instead she runs into an Aestinian stranger with no memories of his past who claims to be looking for a long lost Relic hidden in the mountains by the first Sentinels To Zelle the rumours of lost Relics are just stories told to trick gullible travellers but the hordes of enemies on the stranger's tail suggest otherwise Armed with nothing but her grandmother's sentient and temperamental magical staff Zelle finds herself tasked with keeping them both alive Between monstrous beasts magical storms and an enthusiastic but inept aspiring assassin and her dragon sidekick Zelle has her work cut out if she wants to survive long enough to save her grandmother and prevent the destruction of a nation Maybe Zeuten is in need of a few heroes after all An epic fantasy trilogy featuring a bookworm heroine with a sarcastic talking staff a warrior with no memory of his past and an inept aspiring assassin with a baby dragon sidekick For fans of fast paced adventures cool settings and action packed plots Wired Wisdom Eszter Hargittai, John Palfrey, 2025-07-09 A surprising window into the online lives of people sixty and over offering essential insights no matter your age Many popular accounts say the older you are the greater your tech struggles And it's worrying to think of loved ones emailing cringe worthy misinformation falling for phishing attacks or becoming lonelier with increasing time spent online But in their eye opening book on the internet's fastest growing demographic researchers Eszter Hargittai and John Palfrey offer a more nuanced picture debunking common myths about older adults internet use to offer hope and a necessary call to action Incorporating original interviews and survey results from thousands of people sixty and over Wired Wisdom shows that many in fact use technology in ways that put younger peers to shame Over sixties are often nimble online and quicker to abandon social media platforms that don't meet their needs Despite being targeted more often they also may be less likely to fall for scams than younger peers And fake news actually fools fewer people over sixty who have far more experience evaluating sources and detecting propaganda Still there are unseen risks and missed opportunities for this group Hargittai and Palfrey offer practical advice and show that our stereotypes can be hurdles that keep us from building intergenerational support communities helping loved ones adopt new technology that may improve their lives and thriving together online The Collected Works of Enid Blyton.
