Constitutionalism in Asia Wen-Chen Chang, Li-ann Thio, Kevin YL Tan, Jiunn-rong Yeh, 2014-02-19 This book of text cases and materials from Asia is designed for scholars and students of constitutional law and comparative constitutional law The book is divided into 11 chapters arranged thematically around key ideas and controversies enabling the reader to work through the major facets of constitutionalism in the region The book begins with a lengthy introduction that critically examines the study of constitutional orders in Asia highlighting the histories colonial influences and cultural particularities extant in the region This chapter serves both as a provisional orientation towards the major constitutional developments seen in Asia both unique and shared with other regions and as a guide to the controversies encountered in the study of constitutional law in Asia Each of the following chapters is framed by an introductory essay setting out the issues and succinctly highlighting critical perspectives and themes The approach is one of challenge and response whereby questions of constitutional importance are posed and the reader is then led by engaging with primary and secondary materials through the way the various Asian states respond to these questions and challenges Chapter segments are accompanied by notes comments and questions to facilitate critical and comparative analysis as well as recommendations for further reading The book presents a representative range of Asian materials from jurisdictions including Bangladesh China Hong Kong India Japan Mongolia Nepal Pakistan South Korea Sri Lanka Taiwan Timor Leste and the 10 ASEAN states Central-Local Relations in Asian Constitutional Systems Andrew Harding, Mark Sidel, 2015-12-17 This book examines territorial governance in Asia in the context of central local relations In an era of attempts to deal with issues such as decentralisation conflict involving ethnic and religious enclaves and demands for regional autonomy it is timely to examine central local relations in a pan Asian perspective assessing the attempts in a range of different constitutional systems from Japan to Myanmar to re order constitutional structures for local government The book looks at the constitutional systems for organising central local relations in Asia and attempts to draw conclusions from contemporary experiences Constitutional Foundations in Northeast Asia Kevin YL Tan, Michael Ng, 2021-12-16 This new book in the Constitutionalism in Asia series considers the idea of origins and of change and continuity in terms of constitution making which is an on going process in the Northeast Asian states The book examines the drafting nature core values and roles of the first modern constitutions during the founding of the 8 modern states territories in Northeast Asia China 1949 Taiwan 1947 Hong Kong SAR 1997 Macau SAR 1999 Japan 1889 North Korea 1948 and 1972 South Korea 1948 and Mongolia 1924 The collection provides an exploratory description of the process and substantive inputs in the making of the first constitutions of these nations territories analysis of the internal and external including intra regional forces surrounding the making of these constitutions and theoretical construction of models to conceptualise the nature and role of the first constitutions including constituent documents in the founding of the modern nation states territories and their subsequent impact on state building in the region Taiwan John Franklin Copper, 2019-11-13 In this newly revised and updated seventh edition of Taiwan Nation State or Province Copper examines Taiwan's geography and history society and culture economy political system and foreign and security politics in the context of Taiwan's uncertain status as either a sovereign nation or a province of the People's Republic of China Analyzing possible future scenarios and trends that could affect Taiwan's status the author argues that Taiwan's very rapid and successful democratization suggests Taiwan should be independent and separate from China while economic links between Taiwan and China indicate the opposite New features to this brand new edition include The triumph of the Democratic Progressive Party DPP in the 2016 elections The impact of the Trump administration on US Taiwan relations The rise of populism The shift in cross Strait relations with China given their increased power on the world stage This revised and fully up to date textbook will be essential reading for students of Taiwan China US China relations and democracy

Growing Constitutions Tom Ginsburg, 1999 Portraits of Women in International Law Immi Tallgren, 2023 This fascinating volume offers a set of biographies of women and gender non conforming people who made a difference in international law but who in most cases were never well known or have been forgotten These portraits describe each individual's engagement with international law the context in which they worked and the barriers they faced Judicial Review in New Democracies Tom Ginsburg, 2003-07-23 New democracies around the world have adopted constitutional courts to oversee the operation of democratic politics Where does judicial power come from how does it develop in the early stages of democratic liberalization and what political conditions support its expansion This book answers these questions through an examination of three constitutional courts in Asia Taiwan Korea and Mongolia In a region that has traditionally viewed law as a tool of authoritarian rulers constitutional courts in these three societies are becoming a real constraint on government In contrast with conventional culturalist accounts this book argues that the design and functioning of constitutional review are largely a function of politics and interests Judicial review the power of judges to rule an act of a legislature or national leader unconstitutional is a solution to the problem of uncertainty in constitutional design By providing insurance to prospective electoral losers judicial review can facilitate democracy Verstaatlichung der Welt?
