Universality

and Translation Gavin Arnall,Katie Chenoweth,2025-01-07 Within contemporary theory the concepts of translation and universality have frequently been associated with different and even opposed philosophical and political projects watchwords of either domination or liberation the erasure of difference or the defense of difference The universalizing drives of capitalism colonialism and other systems of oppression have precipitated widespread suspicion of any appeal to universality This has led some in turn to champion the very notion of universality as antithetical to these systems of oppression Similarly recent scholarship has begun to grapple with the fundamental role of translation not only in forging inclusive democratic politics but also by contrast in violence including imperial expansion and global war The present volume advocates neither for nor against translation or universality as such Instead it attends to their insurmountable ambiguity and equivocity the tensions and contradictions that are internal to both concepts and that exist between them Indeed the wager of this volume is that translation universality and their relationship name irreducible yet overlapping sites of struggle for a diverse array of struggles on the Left Drawing from multiple intellectual traditions and orientations with a special emphasis on deconstruction and Marxism this volume both reveals and participates in a subterranean current of thought committed to theorizing the dynamic plural and ultimately inextricable relationship between translation and universality Its contributors approach this problem in ways that challenge and unsettle dominant trends within translation studies and critical and postcolonial theory thereby opening new lines of inquiry within and beyond these fields Contributors Ben Conisbee Baer Barbara Cassin Souleymane Bachir Diagne Cate Reilly Peter Thomas Gavin Walker Naomi Waltham Smith Gary Wilder

Counterpleasures Karmen MacKendrick,1999-01-01 Takes up a series of literary and physical pleasures that do not appear to be pleasurable ranging from Christian saintly asceticism to Sadean narrative to contemporary s m practices

Strangely Rhetorical Jimmy Butts,2023-05-01 Strangely Rhetorical establishes the groundwork for strangeness as a lens under the broader interdisciplinary umbrella of rhetoric and composition and shares a series of rhetorical devices for practically thinking about how compositions are made unique Jimmy Butts explores how strange novel weird and interesting texts work and offers insight into how and why these forms can be invented created and stylized to generate the effective delivery of rhetorical messages in fun divergent ways Using a new theoretical framework that strangeness is inherent within all rhetorical interactions and is potentially useful Butts demonstrates how rhetoric is always already coming from an Other offering an ethical context for how defamiliarized texts work with different audiences Applying examples of seven figures for composing in and across written aural visual electronic and spatial texts the WAVES of media Butts shows how divergence is possible in all sorts of refigured multimodal ways Strangely Rhetorical rethinks what exactly rhetoric is and does considering the ways that strange compositions help rhetors connect across a broad range of networks in a world haunted by distance

This is a book about strange rhetoric for makers and creatives for students and teachers and for composers of all sorts

The Poetics of Grace: Christian Ethics as Theodicy Jeph Holloway, 2013-04-09 What is God doing about a world marked by conflict and division What about a world in which our technologies promise great good but also threaten our existence What is God doing in a world where the demands for accumulation and acquisition create division and despair Can Christians hope to be of positive influence in a world that does not always support reflect or even understand Christian commitments

Christian ethics often raises such questions as these and the possible answers vary widely Paul's Letter to the Ephesians is a tremendous resource for exploring a faithful response to perhaps the toughest question of all what is God doing about evil The role of Christian ethics is to take seriously the challenge that whatever God is doing God calls us to participate in a distinctive task that embraces our own commitments and labors within the divine purpose Ephesians says that God has taken the initiative to pursue that purpose and remarkably offers that we ourselves are part of the answer to the question what is God doing about evil

Energy Justice Across Borders Gunter Bombaerts, Kirsten Jenkins, Yekeen A. Sanusi, Wang Guoyu, 2019-10-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license We must find new and innovative ways of conceptualizing transboundary energy issues of embedding concerns of ethics or justice into energy policy and of operationalizing response to them This book stems from the emergent gap the need for comparative approaches to energy justice and for those that consider ethical traditions that go beyond the classical Western approach This edited volume unites the fields of energy justice and comparative philosophy to provide an overarching global perspective and approach to applying energy ethics We contribute to this purpose in four sections setting the scene practice applying theory to practice and theoretical approaches Through the chapters featured in the volume we position the book as one that contributes to energy justice scholarship across borders of nations borders of ways of thinking and borders of disciplines The outcome will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students studying energy justice ethics and environment as well as energy scholars policy makers and energy analysts

Seeking Communion as Healing Dialogue Margaret M. Mullan, 2021-06-10 Seeking Communion as Healing Dialogue Gabriel Marcel's Philosophy for Today discusses society's problems with interpersonal communication arguing that these issues are more deeply rooted in problems in being Margaret M Mullan draws on the work of Gabriel Marcel to explore the meaning of body of being with and of being at all in today's world answering questions about why we are often unable to dialogue with the people around us why we feel disconnected and alone even in an increasingly technological world and how these changing technologies expose and sometimes exacerbate our weak connections to others Engaging Marcel's reflective method and theory of communion Mullan explores how we seek communion amid technology and proposes that Marcel's reflections are generative contributions to the understanding and study of communication offering a way to seek healing dialogue in present day Scholars of communication philosophy conflict studies and media studies will find this book particularly useful
