Power Of The Media:

Agents of Power J. Herbert Altschull, 1995 How powerful are the news media In what way do they operate as agents of social control and to what extent is command of information necessary to gain and maintain power in this age of global communication Agents of Power The Media and Public Policy Second Edition boldly explores these timely issues to emphasize the interdependence of mass media and politics in the United States and abroad A global book about a global world on the brink of the twenty first century it focuses on actual political economic and cultural events Updated and expanded topics in this major revision include the social control function of the news media and the world wide interaction of media and politics from Washington to Moscow from the newsroom to the board room the growing power of the image maker industry in manipulating media coverage of election campaigns and the course of public policy and a history of the media the frustrated search for a world information order and current attempts to diversify newsrooms and news coverage Power, Media and the Covid-19 Pandemic Stuart Price, Ben Harbisher, 2021-12-30 This edited collection provides an in depth interdisciplinary critique of the acts of public communication disseminated during a major global crisis Encompassing contributions from academics working in the fields of politics environmentalism citizens rights state theory cultural studies journalism and discourse rhetoric the book offers an original insight into the relationship between the various social forces that contributed to the Covid narrative The subjects analysed here include the performance of the mainstream media the quality of political messaging and argumentation the securitised state and racism in Brazil the growth of catastrophic management in UK universities emergent journalistic practices in South Africa homelessness and punitive dispossession the pandemic and the history of eugenics and the Chinese media s attempt to disguise discriminatory practices This is one of the first comparative studies of the various rationales offered for state corporate intervention in public life Delving beneath established political tropes and state rhetoric it identifies the power relations exposed by an event that was described as unprecedented and unique but was in fact comparable to other major global disruptions As governments insisted on distinguishing their own propaganda from unregulated disinformation their increasingly sceptical publics pursued their own idiosyncratic solutions to the crisis while the apparent sacrifice of a host of citizens from the most dedicated to the most vulnerable suggested that inequality and exploitation remained at the heart of the social order Power Media and the Covid 19 Pandemic is essential reading for students researchers and academics in media communication and journalism studies politics environmental sciences critical discourse analysis cultural studies and the sociology of health Media And Society Burton, Graeme, 2010-05-01 This book introduces undergraduates to critical perspectives on the relationship between media and society and to ideas about the production of meaning through media The opening chapters provide a foundation to understanding the triangular relationship between media businesses institutions and texts and audiences Succeeding chapters look at specialist areas such as popular music news new technologies advertising and globalization There is a development and application of ideas about such key terms as representation difference discourse and ideology The student reader is encouraged to take on different views around issues relating to questions of media power media influence audience consumption There is an emphasis on applying ideas to media practices and media texts There is engagement with debates around such topics as public service broadcasting and the public sphere Students are introduced to a range of key thinkers and their ideas as concepts issues and debates are introduced The reader is engaged through key questions case studies illustrations and diagrams as well as a clearly argued text bedded in examples This book is already used both as a foundation at level 1 for degree courses in media studies as a key text for general media modules at different levels and as a key text at various levels in respect of specific chapters supporting specific modules and their topics Media Power, Media Politics Mark J. Rozell, 2003 Media Power Media Politics examines the role and influence of the media in every sphere of American politics Organized thematically the book analyzes the relationship between the media and key institutions political actors and nongovernmental entities as well as the role of the new media media ethics and foreign policy coverage Written clearly and concisely by leading scholars in the field the chapters serve as broad overviews to the issues while discussion questions and suggestions for further reading encourage deeper inquiry Media Power Media Politics is a fresh look at the pervasive influence of the media in American society Media Power David L. Altheide, 1985 Altheide deals with a very simple paradox in the past people communicated in order to get something done now they must first do something in order to communicate The role of the mass media in establishing shaping and maintaining basic communication formats is the main focus of his book He looks at how mass mediated versions of events differ from those experienced first hand and at what would happen if everyone had unlimited access to television broadcasting facilities Using specific examples and case studies of current events Altheide examines the impact and implications of the mass media on a range of phenomena from international relations down to self concept This book is an important complement to that whol Alternative Media in Contemporary Turkey Murat Akser, Victoria McCollum, 2021-10-06 The transformations in alternative media journalism and social protest in contemporary Turkey have largely occurred due to the upsurge in use of social media Some of the most fervent users of social media in the world come from Turkey where forms of social media are frequently banned by the Turkish government This book looks at the structural economic and political reasons why the current media system fails urban educated young professionals in Turkey and led them to a month long resistance and protest through the use of social media during OccupyGezi movement The book outlines the history of alternative media use and the ways in which it has become a tool for the critics of the neoliberal economic system in Turkey The collection concentrates on social media use within social movements and applies interdisciplinary approaches and research methods ranging from cinema and visual arts to sociology political science content analysis and ethnographic study The European Media in the Platform Era Stylianos Papathanassopoulos, Andrea Miconi, 2025-09-01 This book examines the significant changes reshaping the European media landscape in the context of rapid technological advancements political shifts and economic pressures It sheds light on the economic political and structural forces behind these transformations focusing particularly on the impact of platformisation media convergence and the emergence of new players on media production distribution and consumption At the same time the book analyses how platform dominance is reshaping European media ownership by fostering mergers and collaborations while also raising concerns about media concentration Against this backdrop it also considers the evolving role of public broadcasters as governments and policymakers grapple with the challenge of regulating new media realities while maintaining diversity and pluralism It also discusses the implications of the trends for European identity and the European public sphere particularly the tension between a top down institutional and regulatory approach to Europeanisation Providing a detailed overview of the trends and shifts shaping the future of European media the book offers key insights into the dynamics and challenges of the contemporary media environment It will appeal to students researchers and media professionals interested in media studies European studies international communication and public policy Its insightful analysis and empirical grounding enable readers to gain a better understanding of the ongoing transformations in the European media sector and the future direction of the media in the digital platform era

Media and Power James Curran, 2002 Media and Power addresses three key questions about the relationship between media and society How much power do the media have Who really controls the media What is the relationship between media and power in society In this major new book James Curran reviews the different answers which have been given before advancing original interpretations in a series of ground breaking essays This book also provides a guided tour of the major debates in media studies What part did the media play in the making of modern society How did new media change society in the past Will radical media research recover from its mid life crisis Is public service television the dying product of the nation in an age of globalization Media and Power provides both a clear introduction to media research and an innovative analysis of media power

Social Discourse in Challenging Times - The International Interdisciplinary Scientific Conference 2023 - Proceedings and Book of Abstracts Anetta Čaplánová ,Lubomír Darmo, 2023-07-15 In the light of current digital advancements the discourse surrounding digitalization has increased in importance and the International Scientific Conference Social Discourse in Challenging Times reflected upon this trend Coordinated by the University of Economics in Bratislava this event was organized within the ODDEA project at the University of Economics in Bratislava between May 17th 20th 2023 A significant attribute of the conference was its hybrid form utilizing both face to face interaction at the University premises and MS TEAMS for virtual involvement This conference focused on the exploration of two fundamental areas of study The first explored interdisciplinary topics of the current discourse while the second dived into the digital transformation occurring within the EU and Southeast Asian countries The second area was specifically devoted to presentations of research findings from the first work package of the ODDEA project This not only brought to the forefront the work of the project s researchers but it also fostered synergies within the consortium enhancing the project's implementation. The value and impact of the ODDEA project are also reflected within this volume. From discussions around current discourses to the exploration of the digitalization pathways, this collection represents a milestone in our journey towards a digital society research that would be both inclusive and resilient. These presentations provide insights into the selected problems of digital transformation and are invaluable contributions to the understanding of digitalization during these challenging times. Our sincere appreciation goes out to the researchers, contributors, reviewers, and the academic community who have made this significant contribution possible. We hope that this volume will fuel further discussions, inspire additional research, and drive innovative breakthroughs in digitalization and interdisciplinary studies.

Media, Development and Democracy Heloisa Pait, Juliana Laet, 2021-12-08. Sponsored by the Communication, Information Technologies and Media Sociology section of the American Sociological Association (CITAMS), this 22nd volume in Studies in Media and Communications explores the complex construction of democratic public dialogue in developing countries.

Media Power in Politics Doris Appel Graber, 1994. Although there may not be a consensus on what the media's role in politics is or should be, it is clear that the media's pervasive influence has profoundly changed politics in America. In this collection of 37 essays, 15 of them new to this edition, Graber explores the history of mass media and its ability to shape political agendas. The new essay titles include Open Season, How the News Media Cover Presidential Campaigns in the Age of Attack Journalism, and I Am on TV Therefore I Am.

International News in the 21st Century Chris Paterson, Annabelle Sreberny, 2004. In the aftermath of September 11, the nature of international news has resumed a central place in media debates and political analysis. In the first collection of its kind, influential journalists and scholars probe the future of international news. Topics include the conglomerates, ethnocentric imbalances in news reporting, the rise of non-Anglo news channels, approaches for reconstructing the international news agenda, the impacts of new technologies of production and diffusion, international news rhetoric and audiences, imagination of the global, and their perceptions of international news coverage. In a dialogue that is both descriptive and prescriptive, this book begins an encounter between media practitioners, activists, and academics, constituencies that have tended to talk past each other but are now beginning to find some shared concerns.

Media Pluralism and Diversity Peggy Valcke, Miklos Sukosd, Robert Picard, 2015-08-06. Adopting a truly global theoretical and multidisciplinary perspective, Media Pluralism and Diversity intends to advance our understanding of media pluralism across the globe. It compares metrics that have been developed in different parts of the world to assess levels of or threats to media pluralism.

Mass Media and the Moral Imagination (Communication, Culture and Theology) Philip J. Rossi, Paul A. Soukup, 1994-03. The Power of the Media Adam Hibbert, 2006. The Power of the Media features debates on key social and political issues in the 21st century. It is clearly set out with for and againsts on each question of debate. The book includes case studies and statistical data.

Chemical News, 1870. Balkanmedia, 1997. First media magazine of the Balkans.
