Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper, Christopher W. Hughes, Philippe De Lombaerde, 2007-12-21 The relationship between global governance and regionalization is fraught with ambiguity Understanding regionalization in this context requires an understanding of its relationship and reactive condition with both the constellations of global governance and globalization This book presents an overview and explores the distinctive but intersecting trajectories of regionalization and global governance It surveys the theoretical debates the economic dimensions multinationals trade and investment and labour the security considerations armed conflict conflict prevention and peacekeeping and non traditional security in Asia the governing structures managing contemporary multilevel architecture and cultural policy leadership and the L 20 The expert and multi disciplinary editors and contributors survey the context as well as the general character of these projects together with their links as both parallel mediating mechanisms and distinctive choices for interjecting governance into globalization Examining these projects in tandem amplifies their importance and enables the contributors to tease out coincidental as well as alternative possibilities in policy direction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations area studies international economics international political economy political science public administration and development studies Bibliographie der Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1988 Global Capitalism, Global War, Global Crisis Andreas Bieler, Adam David

Morton, 2018-05-17 This book assesses the forces of social struggle shaping the past and present of the global political economy from the perspective of historical materialism Based on the philosophy of internal relations the character of capital is understood in such a way that the ties between the relations of production state civil society and conditions of class struggle can be realised By conceiving the internal relationship of global capitalism global war global crisis as a struggle driven process the book provides a novel intervention on debates within theories of the international Through a set of conceptual reflections on agency structure and the role of discourses embedded in the economy class struggle is established as our point of departure This involves analysing historical and contemporary themes on the expansion of capitalism through uneven and combined development the role of the state and geopolitics and conditions of exploitation and resistance These conceptual reflections and thematic considerations are then extended in a series of empirical interventions including a focus on the rising powers of the BRICS conditions of the new imperialism and the ongoing financial crisis The book delivers a radically open ended dialectical consideration of ruptures of resistance within the global political economy International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, 1988 The Other Policy Frances Stewart, Henk Thomas, Ton de Wilde, 1990 Foreign aid to developing countries often favours inappropriate technologies This book reviews the policies promoting appropriate technology and identifies positive programmes of action that could be instituted at a national level Labour History Review, 1988 The Dragon Enters the Net Fei-Ling Wang, 1992 The National Union of Textile, Garment and Tailoring Workers of Nigeria Issa Aremu, 2001 Labour and Third World Debt Jeffrey Harrod, 1992 Which Global Village? Valeria Lerda, 2002-01-30 The word village has the evocative power of ancient shared social values based on solidarity equality and common expectations for the betterment of life The book's title is borrowed from McLuhan's apt metaphor but questions its underlying assumptions The contributors recast some of the basic elements of the complex phenomenon of the so called globalization Trade laws industrial relations economic and political systems are analyzed in a critical perspective Moreover environment and sustainable development languages rights education mobility and migrations are discussed in view of contemporary changes that societies are undergoing throughout the world The vulnerability of societies caught up in new networks of interdependence due to reduced distances also are put to the fore in the context of the new accelerated circulation of information ideas goods and human beings Provocative reading for scholars interested in a multinational Euro Atlanticist perspective on globalization The international discourse is most recently focused on some negative outgrowths of world economy especially after the Seattle Round December 1999 and its unexpected uprising of protests The researches of the Center for Euro Atlantic Studies University of Genoa in cooperation with scholars from Europe Canada and the United States offer in this collection of essays a multinational contribution which is part of their work in progress on the multifaceted issue of the contemporary global village The book features some optimistic outcomes and some worries about what the new millennium will not achieve

despite the common and transnational efforts that is to say a fair re distribution of resources to reach what R W Fogel defines a post modern equality based on values as well as on material wealth In sum the essayists wonder if some of the hidden promises of globalization will develop in a better new century
