Powers That Be Earthly Ruler And Demonic Powers In Romans Chapter 13 1 7:

Paul and the Imperial Authorities at Thessalonica and Rome James R. Harrison, 2011 James R Harrison investigates the collision between Paul's eschatological gospel and the Julio Claudian conception of rule The ruler's propaganda with its claim about the eternal rule of the imperial house over its subjects embodied in idolatry of power that conflicted with Paul's proclamation of the reign of the risen Son of God over his world This ideological conflict is examined in 1 and 2 Thessalonians and in Romans exploring how Paul's eschatology intersected with the imperial cult in the Greek East and in the Latin West A wide selection of evidence literary documentary numismatic iconographic archeological unveils the symbolic universe of the Julio Claudian rulers This construction of social and cosmic reality stood at odds with the eschatological denouement of world history which in Paul's view culminated in the arrival of God's new creation upon Christ's return as Lord of all Paul exalted the Body of Christ over Nero's body of state transferring to the risen and ascended Jesus many of the ruler's titles and to the Body of Christ many of the ruler's functions Thus for Paul Christ's reign challenged the values of Roman society and transformed its hierarchical social relations through the Spirit

The Fall of the Prison Lee Griffith, 1993 Examining prisons from the perspectives of sociology theology history and biblical exegesis Griffith argues that the church has taken a woefully wrong turn by aligning itself with the traditional justice system He shows how prisons are clearly ineffective at deterring crime and rehabilitating offenders and maintains that Christians should be even more concerned with how the prison fails in principle than how it fails in practice
