visant neutraliser les injonctions du destin How to foresee the unknown and master the unexpected Ancient people tried to answer those questions by interpreting signs considered as divine messages In this volume the writers compare and examine this manifold questioning in the polytheistic and monotheistic societies of the ancient Mediterranean Sea In the first place it is shown how signs were ritually constructed within instituted practice of divination second how although some spontaneous natural phenomena appeared out of any instituted context may nevertheless constitute omens or monition third how the gods intervention may reveal a sort of intention in the course of national history or individual life finally the essays study the epistemology of signs at work in some philosophical or theological elaborations which may enlighten the tension between oracular evidence and ritual control of signs and between revealed facts and reasoning arguments intending to neutralize the
