Rites Of Men:

Storytracking Sam D. Gill, 1998-02-12 Storytracking is a work of theory and application. It is both a study of history and culture and the academic issues accompanying the interpretation and observation of other peoples. Sam Gill writes about Central Australia but more importantly he writes about the business of trying to live responsibly and decisively in a postmodern world faced with irreconcilable diversity and complexity with undeniable ambiguity and uncertainty. Storytracking includes engaging accounts of many of the colorful figures involved in the nineteenth century development of Central Australia and it is an argument for a multiperspectival theory of history. It presents descriptions of an important aboriginal culture, the Arrernte, and it critically examines ethnography. It exposes the colonialist underbelly of all modern academic culture study yet it embraces the situation as one of creative potential, outlining an interactivist epistemology with which to negotiate the classical alternatives of objectivism and subjectivism. Gill presents an examination of the emergent academic study of religion focused on two exemplary scholars, Mircea Eliade and Jonathan Smith, offering a play theory of religion as the basis for innovative critical discussions of text comparison, interpretation, the definition of religion, academic writing style, and the role of the other. Based on painstakingly detailed research, Gill exposes disturbing and confounding dimensions of the modern world, particularly academia. Yet beyond the pessimism that often characterizes postmodernity, he charts an optimistic and creative course framed in the terms of play. The Interpretation of Ritual J.S. La

Fontaine, 2012-12-06 First published in 1972, a revival of interest in primitive religion has been one of the most marked characteristics of British social anthropology of recent years. Inspired by the work of Audrey Richards, whose writing on ritual contains many of the insights that have been developed in later studies, this volume uses material drawn from all over Africa and Polynesia. The contributors include Raymond Firth, Esther Goody, Aidan Southall, R. G. Abrahams, Edwin Ardener, J. S. La Fontaine, Monica Wilson, Elizabeth Bott, Edmund Leach, and P. H. Prophecy Edwin Ardener, 2017-10 Edwin Ardener, a new expanded edition of the collected works of one of the most important social anthropologists in Britain of his time. Ardener worked on social economic demographic and political problems and was particularly influential in his sustained effort to bring together social anthropology and linguistics in a highly original attempt to reconcile scientific and humanistic approaches to the study of society. This volume offers a theoretically and conceptually coherent body of work by this innovative and profound thinker which will continue to excite and stimulate new generations of students and researchers as it has in the past. Feminist Anthropology Ellen Lewin, 2006-02-03

Feminist Anthropology surveys the history of feminist anthropology and offers students and scholars a fascinating collection of both classic and contemporary articles grouped to highlight key themes from the past and present. Offers vibrant examples of feminist ethnographic work rather than synthetic overviews of the field. Each section is framed by a theoretical and bibliographic essay. Includes a thoughtful introduction to the volume that provides context and discusses the intellectual foremothers of the field including Margaret Mead, Ruth Landes, Phyllis Kaberry and Zora Neale Hurston. Te Rii Ni Banaba Raobeia Ken Sigrah, Stacey M. King, 2001

Jealousy and Envy Léon Wurmser, Heidrun Jarass, 2011-02-25 Jealousy and envy permeate the practice of psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic work. New experience and new relevance of old but neglected ideas about these two feeling states and their origins warrant special attention both as to theory and practice. Their great complexity and multilayered nature are highlighted by a number of contributions: the very early inception of the triangular jealousy situations; the prominence of womb envy and hatred against femininity rooted in the envy of female procreancy; the role of shame and the core of both affects; the massive effects of the embodiment of these feelings in the conscience; i.e. the envious and resentful attacks by the inner judge against the self; the attempt to construct a cultic system of sacrifices that would countermand womb envy by an all-male cast of killing, rebirth, redemption and blissful nourishment; and finally the projection of envy, jealousy and their context of shame and self-condemnation in the form of the Evil Eye. Taken together, the contributions to the stunning and insightful volume form a broad spectrum of new insights into the dynamics of two central emotions of rivalry and their clinical and cultural relevance and application.
