Authenticating Whiteness Rachel E. Dubrofsky, 2022-11-29 In Authenticating Whiteness Karens Selfies and Pop Stars Rachel E Dubrofsky explores the idea that popular media implicitly portrays whiteness as credible trustworthy familiar and honest and that this portrayal is normalized and ubiquitous Whether on television film social media or in the news white people are constructed as believable and unrehearsed from the way they talk to how they look and act Dubrofsky argues that this way of making white people appear authentic is a strategy of whiteness requiring attentiveness to the context of white supremacy in which the presentations unfold The volume details how ideas about what is natural good and wholesome are reified in media showing how these values are implicitly racialized Additionally the project details how white women are presented as particularly authentic when they seem to lose agency by expressing affect through emotional and bodily displays The chapters examine a range of popular media newspaper articles about Donald J Trump a selfie taken at Auschwitz music videos by Miley Cyrus the television series UnREAL the infamous video of Amy Cooper calling the police on an innocent Black man and the documentary Miss Americana pinpointing patterns that cut across media to explore the implications for the larger culture in which they exist At its heart the book asks Who gets to be authentic And what are the implications

Creating the Viewer Justin Wyatt, 2024-04-23 A study of the largely hidden world of primary media market research and the different methods used to understand how the viewer is pictured in the industry The first book on the intersection between market research and media Creating the Viewer takes a critical look at media companies studies of television viewers the assumptions behind these studies and the images of the viewer that are constructed through them Justin Wyatt examines various types of market research including talent testing pilot testing series maintenance brand studies and new show ideation providing examples from a range of programming including news sitcoms reality shows and dramas He looks at brand studies for networks such as E and examines how the brands of individuals such as showrunner Ryan Murphy can be tested Both an analytical and practical work the book includes sample questionnaires and paths for study moderators and research analysts to follow Drawn from over fifteen years of experience in research departments at various media companies Creating the Viewer looks toward the future of media viewership discussing how the concept of the viewer has changed in the age of streaming how services such as Netflix view market research and how viewers themselves can shift the industry through their media choices behaviors and activities
