Advertising and Promotion in Real Time Michael

Solomon, 2009 Launch Advertising and Promotion is written for advertising and promotion courses taught to students in the business school and journalism mass communication students. This textbook is the first of its kind to teach advertising concepts by reverse engineering a real advertising campaign from beginning to end. In April 2007, SS K, an innovative New York City communications agency, launched the first ever branding campaign for msnbc.com with the tag A Fuller Spectrum of News. Launch follows that campaign from initial agency pitch through roll out of print and media assets to post campaign analysis. Throughout it exposes readers to the theory and concepts of advertising and promotion and the personalities and decisions that drove this campaign. The book takes a rare look behind the curtain even letting you see some of the paths not chosen by the agency and client. Students get a realistic sense of how theory plays out in practice and get a flavor for the exciting field of advertising and promotion. And they consistently learn the perspectives of both the advertising agency where many journalism and communications students will work and the client where many marketing majors will work. This is a unique book with a unique perspective by a unique author team and you won't find this kind of insight in any other text on the market. We think you're going to love it. This textbook has been used in classes at Ball State University, Emerson College, Florida Institute of Technology, Grand Valley State University, Johnson County Community College, Manchester Business School, McLennan Community College, Michigan State University, North Hennepin Community College, Pierce College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Saint Louis University, Salem State College, South Dakota State University, Texas State University, Texas Tech University, University of New Hampshire, University of North Carolina, University of Notre Dame, University of South Florida, Virginia Tech, Western Kentucky University. Handbook of Marketing Strategy Venkatesh Shankar, Gregory S. Carpenter, James Farley/Booz Allen Hamilton, 2012. This authoritative comprehensive and accessible volume by leading global experts provides a broad overview of marketing strategy issues and questions including its evolution, competitor analysis, customer management, resource allocation, dynamics, branding, advertising, multichannel management, digital marketing, and financial aspects of marketing. The Handbook comprises seven broad topics. Part I focuses on the conceptual and organizational aspects of marketing strategy while Part II deals with understanding competition. Customers and customer-based strategy, marketing strategy decisions, and branding and brand strategies are covered in the next three parts while Part VI looks at marketing strategy dynamics. The final part discusses the impact of marketing strategy on performance variables such as sales, market share, shareholder value, and stakeholder value. All of the chapters in this Handbook offer in-depth analyses of research developments, provide frameworks for analyzing key issues, and highlight important unresolved problems in marketing strategy. Collectively they provide a deep understanding of and key insights into the foundations, antecedents, and consequences of marketing strategy. This compendium is an essential resource guide for researchers, doctoral students, practitioners, and consultants in the field of marketing strategy.
