Hacking His Code Lark Anderson, 2024-02-13 I must confess I did something very naughty And I haven't learned my lesson I was late on tuition In a mountain of debt And morally obligated to grant my mother's dying wish to get my college degree Which is why I was on the seedy underbelly of the internet cruising for a hacking job I had no idea Hunter Davies the elusive tech giant was watching me and when I passed his little impromptu pop quiz he sent armed men to bring me to his estate And let me tell you he is a piece of work He's disgustingly rich with arrogance in spades He should be in jail for what he's done to me But he offered me a job One that could make all my problems disappear And as much as I hate to admit it he's flippin' other worldly levels of gorgeous Now I have one week to solve a 24 year old cold case or else I go home empty handed Just one catch I have to pretend to be his girlfriend in front of his parents who are itching for grandkids I agree to his terms and somehow one thing leads to another and I wake up in his bed This is not how the job was supposed to go I hate men they can't be trusted But the more I learn about Hunter the less my logic makes sense I'm supposed to be solving one of the greatest mysteries of our time not falling in love And as I'm about to find out if I don't figure this all out soon it could cost us everything
