The Better Business Bureau A to Z Buying Guide Virginia Schomp, 1990

A Comparison of Online Shopping Behavior of American and German Consumers Silke Kühn, 2010 Diploma Thesis from the year 2004 in the subject Business economics Marketing Corporate Communication CRM Market Research Social Media grade 2 7 University of Duisburg Essen language English abstract A profound shift in the economy is underway the industrial age economy is rapidly giving way to the Internet age economy 1 Four years after the New Economy crash the Internet Economy is booming and hopes that mobile offers will further increase the speed 2 With the number of online sales for goods and services increasing every day 3 online shopping with sales growth rates outpacing traditional retailing purchases has become one of the fastest growing forms of shopping 4 The statement above explains the reason why the term Electronic Commerce has kept both business research and business practice as occupied as barely any other term in the last years 5 Warren D Raisch writes about this shift in the economy that the global development and acceptance of the Internet as the new standard for communication and commerce provides us with a powerful new global Internet based E Business network 6 Realizing that we live in a global marketplace with international trade7 additionally pushed by the Internet companies face a stronger competition and the need to create more value for customers than their competitors In this context it is important for companies to realize that through the Internet there is a power shift to the customer Furthermore as customers will demand and tolerate only delightening buying experiences it is a necessity to capture and analyze information about buying behavior in the 21st century business 8 When talking about E Commerce which is a part of Electronic Business E Business describing the sale of goods and services via the Internet targeting a mass market9 the following two areas have to be differentiated Business to Customer B2C E Commerce meaning the settlement of buying contracts between a commercial customer and a business customer

Nelson Vs. the United States of America Marcus Giavanni,1998 The book recounts day by day how the FBI investigators somehow centered the entire extortion plot around Nelson and another innocent man whose only mistake was to spend fifteen minutes chatting by the lake and then to stop at a fast food restaurant for a hamburger Nelson fit the profile that the FBI had in mind a long pony tail a cellular phone and a red Corvette which he liked to drive fast From this harmless set of facts grew an inconsistent FBI surveillance log incredibly biased misstatements of the truth and wholly contrived witness statements all elaborately tailored to implicate Nelson Other evidence of Nelson's innocence and the unreliability of the existing evidence was simply ignored including an FBI wiretap conversation between the real extortionist and his accomplice discussing the extortion plot in detail The real extortionist admitted that he had no idea who the FBI had arrested Nevertheless Nelson was indeed arrested with his photo plastered all over the Phoenix newspapers Nelson's life would never be the same U.S. News & World Report ,1995
