Burton, 2017-11-15 From Main Street to Mumbai Managing Emerging Risk The Capstone of Preparedness considers the new global drivers behind threats and hazards facing all those tasked with protecting the public and private sector The text delves into the global mindset of public and private sector emergency managers and presents a new risk landscape vastly different from the one existing ten years ago The book begins by presenting a series of fictitious scenarios each resulting in mass destruction and fatalities These are each followed by actual news stories that support the scenarios and demonstrate that the proposed events seemingly unthinkable have the potential to occur Next the author identifies two drivers in the practice of emergency management and general preparedness today that constitute our view of the future and the new face of risk The first is the Disaster Halo Effect the idea that modern threats exhibit more than one event The second is the worldview of our nation as a Market State focused on the trading of goods services and ideas among the nation states The book also reviews the history of preparedness and discusses its relationship with large scale threats establishing that hindsight bias has hurt our ability to plan and respond to the unexpected The chapters that follow explore what is needed to better cultivate design develop and operate emerging management and preparedness thinking in the current environment Each chapter begins with key terms and objectives and ends with thought provoking questions Introducing a new paradigm of thought that takes into account the chief influencers of global threats the book arms emergency and business operations managers with the ammo needed to successfully confront emerging threats in the 21st century

Violent Affections Alexander Sasha Kondakov, 2022-09-07 Violent Affections uncovers techniques of power that work to translate emotions into violence against queer people Based on analysis of over 300 criminal cases of anti queer violence in Russia before and after the introduction of gay propaganda law the book shows how violent acts are framed in emotional language by perpetrators during their criminal trials It then utilises an original methodology of studying legal memes and argues that these individual affective states are directly connected to the political violence aimed at queer lives more generally The main aim of Violent Affections is to explore the social mechanisms and techniques that impact anti queer violence evidenced in the reviewed cases Alexander Sasha Kondakov expands upon two sets of interdisciplinary literature queer theory and affect theory in order to conceptualise what is referred to as neo disciplinary power Taking the empirical observations from Russia as a starting point he develops an original explanation of how contemporary power relations are changing from those of late modernity as envisioned by Foucault's Panopticon to neo disciplinary power relations of a much more fragmented fluid and unstructured kind the Memeticon The book traces how exactly affections circulate from body to body as a kind of virus and eventually invade the body that responds with violence In this analytic effort it draws on the arguments from memetics the theory of how pieces of information pass on from one body to another as they thrive to survive by continuing to resonate This work makes the argument truly interdisciplinary Mémé Santerre Mémé Santerre, Serge Graftaux, 1985 En kvinde af folket fortæller om livet på landet i Frankrig 1891 1977
