Letters in Black and White Winkfield Twyman, Jr.,Jennifer Richmond,2023-05-23 Unsatisfied with the relentless pace and narrow constraints of social media two Americans Winkfield Twyman Jr and Jennifer Richmond a black man and a white woman rediscovered the art of letter writing and maintained a years long correspondence about race in the United States In Letters in Black and White they share for the first time their exchange in full charting their journey from wary strangers to trusted confidants At a time when many Americans are dazed confused and angered by the country s current state of race relations they offer a model not only for having needed but difficult conversations but also for a better way forward Marked by well crafted turns of phrase sharp wit and sober reflection they do not rely on those fashionable words and phrases that have been drained of real meaning or are hopelessly saddled with excessive baggage such as antiracism white fragility and allyship Rather on topics ranging from the murder of George Floyd and the launch of the 1619 Project to the debate over reparations and the nature of elite black organizations like Jack and Jill of America they tell the truth as they see it in their own uncorrupted language speaking for no one but themselves Particularly critical of both the ideological battles that fuel media programming and entrench political rivalries and the noble sounding social and cultural projects that fail time and again to offer any meaningful solutions they identify productive ways to unify across our differences ways to find our common humanity and to mend America s divided soul Ultimately they offer an inspirational message of hope and optimism for all one that does not allow the past to define our present or predetermine our future 15 Side Hustle Ideas Ava
