Waddell, 2016-03-15 Fewer Canadians than ever are lacing up skates swimming lengths at the pool practicing their curve ball and experiencing the thrill of competition However despite a decline in active participation Canadians spend enormous amounts of time and money on sports as fans and followers of sporting events and sports culture Never has media coverage of sports been more exhaustive and never has it been more driven by commercial interests and the need to fuel consumerism on which corporate profits depend But the power plays now occurring in the arena of sports are by no means solely a matter of money At issue as well in the media capture of sports are the values that inform our daily lives the physical and emotional health of the population and the symbols so long central to a sense of Canadian identity Writing from a variety of perspectives the contributors to this collection set out to explore the impact of the media on our reception of and attitudes toward sports to unpack the meanings that sports have for us as citizens and consumers Some contributors probe the function of sports as spectacle the escalation of violence controversies over drug use and the media's coverage of tragic deaths while others shed light on the way in which the media serve to transform sports into a vehicle for the expression of identity and nationalism The goal is not to score points but to prompt critical discussion of why sports matter in Canadian life and culture and how they contribute to the construction of identity

The Wall Street Journal ,2005 Brandweek ,2007-10 Mediaweek ,2010 The $11 Billion Year Anne Thompson, 2014-03-18 This chronicle of 2012 is a slice of what happened during a watershed year for the Hollywood movie industry It's not the whole story but it's a mosaic of what went on and why and of where things are heading What changed in one Hollywood year to produce a record breaking box office

after two years of decline How can the Sundance Festival influence a film s fate as it did for Beasts of the Southern Wild and Searching for Sugar Man which both went all the way to the Oscars Why did John Carter misfire and The Hunger Games succeed How did maneuvers at festivals such as South by Southwest SXSW Cannes Telluride Toronto and New York and at conventions such as CinemaCon and Comic Con benefit Amour Django Unchained Moonrise Kingdom Silver Linings Playbook Les Mis rables The Life of Pi The Avengers Lincoln and Argo What jeopardized Zero Dark Thirty s launch What role does gender bias still play in the industry What are the ten things that changed the 2012 Oscar race When it comes to film Anne Thompson a seasoned reporter and critic addresses these questions and more on her respected daily blog Thompson on Hollywood Each year she observes the Hollywood machine at work the indies at Sundance the exhibitors jockeying at CinemaCon the international scene at Cannes the summer tentpoles the fall s smart films and festivals the family friendly and big films of the holiday season and the glamour of the Oscars Inspired by William Goldman s classic book The Season which examined the overall Broadway scene through a production by production analysis of one theatrical season Thompson had long wanted to apply a similar lens to the movie business When she chose 2012 as the year to track she knew that box office and DVD sales were declining production costs were soaring and the digital revolution was making big waves but she had no idea that events would converge to bring radical structural movement record setting box office revenues and what she calls sublime moviemaking Though impossible to mention all 670 plus films released in 2012 Thompson includes many in this book while focusing on the nine Best Picture nominees and the personalities and powers behind them Reflecting on the year Thompson concludes The best movies get made because filmmakers financiers champions and a great many gifted creative people stubbornly ignore the obstacles The question going forward is how adaptive these people are and how flexible is the industry itself
