ISRL 2020 Yusuf Durachman, Akmal Ruhana, Ida Fitri Astuti, 2021-03-22 We are delighted to introduce Proceedings of the 3rd International Symposium On Religious Life ISRL 2020 This conference has brought academicians researchers developers and practitioners around the world In collaboration with Indonesian Consortium for Religious Studies ICRS and Indonesian Institute of Sciences LIPI the Agency for Research Development and Training of the Ministry of Religious Affairs MoRA convened bi annual symposium with the following main theme Religious Life Ethics and Human Dignity in the Disruptive Era The 3rd ISRL highlighted the role of religion and ethics in the disruptive era that erode human values civility and dignity In the processes of development and technological revolution religion can play an essential role in providing spiritual moral and ethical guidance In the context of the Covid 19 pandemic religion is perceived in two ways on the one hand some faith communities have been willfully negligent and become super spreaders of the dangerous virus by defying stay at home orders Yet on the other hand religion has also galvanized its adherents to support economically vulnerable and marginalized communities affected by the lockdown and social restrictions Likewise in democratization religion gives society the necessary dynamic thrust to maintain its vibrancy resiliency and sustainability This Symposium is therefore expected to delve into the complexity of how religion religious values and faith communities confront the contemporary challenges to uphold ethics and human dignity We strongly believe that ISRL conference provides a good forum for all academicians researcher developers and practitioners to discuss all religious Life ethics and human dignity We also expect that the future ISRL conference will be as successful and stimulating as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume

Handbook of Technology Application in Tourism in Asia Azizul Hassan, 2022-07-09 It is an undisputed reality that the tourism industry in Asia is getting exposed to more innovative technologies than ever before This proposed book provides the latest research in the application of innovative technology to the tourism industry covering the perspectives innovativeness theories issues complexities opportunities and challenges This book a blend of comprehensive and extensive effort by the contributors and editors is designed to cover the application and practice of technology in tourism including the relevant niches This book focuses on the importance of technology in tourism This also highlights in a comprehensive manner specific technologies that are impacting the tourism industry in Asia as well as the constraints the industry is facing The contents of this book deal with distinct topics such as mobile computing new product designs innovative technology usages in tourism promotion technology driven sustainable tourism development location based apps mobility accessibility and so on A good number of research studies have conducted outlining the contributions and importance of technologies in tourism in general However the tourism industry of Asia so far has attracted very few researchers Some contributions have been made but not sufficient Considering the ongoing trend of technology application in the tourism industry in Asia very few research attempts have been made aiming to explore diverse aspects Tourism is expanding enormously across the world which actually creates more demands for effective technologies This book will be a reading companion especially for tourism students in higher academic institutions This book will also be read by the relevant policy planners and industry professionals Apart from them this book will be appreciated by expatriate researchers and researchers having keen interest in the Asian tourism industry Social Media in Sport Gashaw Abeza, Jimmy Sanderson, 2023-12-05 This book takes a close look at social media in sport and considers its significance for sport business and for the wider relationship between sport and society Presenting new research case studies and data it examines the way people use social media the changing art of managing social media platforms and the theory and concepts that inform research on this important topic Featuring the work of leading sport researchers from around the world the book presents evidence based analysis of contemporary topics including fan engagement athlete activism branding and sponsorship strategies sportswashing public relations and crisis communication It presents case studies from sports and events such as the Olympic Games the WNBA professional football leagues and Peloton and across social media platforms including TikTok Twitter and Instagram This is essential reading for anybody with an interest in sport media sport business the sociology of sport digital business or new media studies

Success Secrets of the Online Marketing Superstars Mitch Meyerson, 2015-03-04 Eager business owners gain access to the playbooks of 23 of today's most respected and well known online marketers who reveal their most valuable online strategies and tactics for capturing new customers and influencing ongoing purchases from current ones Each chapter is a coaching session designed to help business owners avoid the pitfalls and mistakes by the experts who have been there and done that Readers learn how to develop a personal media brand build a total online presence and create a social media strategy that increases traffic They also discover how to develop and use content that converts visitors into buyers and ultimately loyal customers succeed with SEO pay per click and linking strategies that get websites ranked Also included is information on leveraging social networking apps including Facebook online video and Instagram and avoiding the mistakes made by new online businesses Liminality in Tourism Robert S. Bristow, Ian Jenkins, 2021-09-05 Liminality is not typically associated with tourism even though it can be viewed as an intrinsic element of the social cultural experiences of tourism Liminality in Tourism Spatial and Temporal Considerations aims to build upon the tradition of liminality as expounded in social and anthropological disciplines elaborating on the theoretical principles and concepts found within certain aspects of the tourist journey and tourist product The emergence of post modern society has impelled a change in the tourist gaze towards a more experiential and adventuresome globalised experience An important aspect of the tourist phenomenon of liminality is where a transformative experience is triggered by entering a liminoid tourist space leaving the tourist permanently psychologically transformed before returning to normalised society The narrative provides a new perspective on the tourist experience with a provocative examination into the multidimensional aspects of tourism by exploring tourism within the spatial and temporal aspects of liminal landscapes Covid 19 has further changed the rubric of tourism Until the current pandemic tourism has basically been a fun experience In a post pandemic world however the tourist is now facing an unknown future which will almost certainly affect tourism liminality This book presents the reader with a wealth of examples and case studies closely illustrating the association between tourism and liminal experiences The geographical perspectives explore the more subconscious outcomes of destination and tourist product consumption The book should be a useful reader to tourism geography where the theory of liminality can be synthesized into tourist experiences The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Qualitative Research in Criminology Rita Faria, Mary Dodge, 2022-11-18 This volume introduces innovative and inspired qualitative methods through topics on crime commission victimisation and crime control It highlights how qualitative methods offer significant insights that frame our understanding of the narratives events theoretical perspectives and realities of the social world This book includes chapters discussing cutting edge methods which demonstrate how qualitative research can expand beyond traditional approaches It offers diversity in research including gender race and geographic sensitivities The volume addresses a multitude of approaches for using qualitative methodologies including innovative uses of technology mediums such as social media participatory videos Zoom interviewing and photographic visual methods as means of collecting and co producing relevant data on meaning Ultimately this book illustrates how qualitative criminology allows for deeper and more nuanced understandings of local and regional specificities in a globalized world and how social interactions are influenced by individual interpretations social interactions and collective decision making This volume is an essential read for graduate students and researchers in criminology and other social science disciplines interested in qualitative empirical research and informed policy making
