Phonics Skills

[Student's Name], keep practicing blending letter sounds to read new words. You're getting better every day, and I believe in you!

[Student's Name] needs to work a little more on recognizing digraphs like 'ch' and 'sh' to read words more fluently. She/He is making great progress, and I know she/he can do even better!

[Student's Name] often forgets to apply phonics rules and break words into smaller parts when reading. Regular and guided practice at home can help her improve her reading skills.

Here's a suggestion for [Student's name] - It is important to listen to rhyming words carefully to be able to use them correctly. Paying a little more attention can help you understand and produce rhyming words without a problem. I know you can do this!

I am concerned that [Student's name] still has difficulty applying phonics skills while reading and writing. Have him/her practice skills like decoding, segmenting, and blending letters at home so he or she can get better at it and achieve grade-level competency.
