Chinafy Joanna Hutchins, 2023-06-15 Western business leaders make two key assumptions about China that China is always copying the West and that the West is the seat of innovation The truth is surprising China is both copying and innovating and while Western businesses are busy looking for the next new thing China is rapidly iterating on what's already been done and pushing ahead While businesses in the West are getting disrupted and left behind the savvy leaders among them can learn innovate and excel by copying China's playbook Chinafy distils the key lessons from China to unlock business potential anywhere in the world These lessons serve as catalysts for how to Chinafy innovation for growth Taking a deep dive into the workings of China's most successful brands from Haier to ByteDance author Joanna Hutchins reveals what it takes to get ahead in the world of business and innovation

Digital and Social Media Marketing Nripendra P. Rana, Emma L. Slade, Ganesh P. Sahu, Hatice Kizgin, Nitish Singh, Bidit

Dey, Anabel Gutierrez, Yogesh K. Dwivedi, 2019-11-11 This book examines issues and implications of digital and social media marketing for emerging markets. These markets necessitate substantial adaptations of developed theories and approaches employed in the Western world. The book investigates problems specific to emerging markets while identifying new theoretical constructs and practical applications of digital marketing. It addresses topics such as electronic word of mouth (eWOM), demographic differences in digital marketing, mobile marketing, search engine advertising, among others. A radical increase in both temporal and geographical reach is empowering consumers to exert influence on brands, products, and services. Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) and digital media are having a significant impact on the way people communicate and fulfil their socio-economic, emotional, and material needs. These technologies are also being harnessed by businesses for various purposes, including distribution and selling of goods, retailing of consumer services, customer relationship management, and influencing consumer behaviour by employing digital marketing practices. This book considers this as it examines the practice and research related to digital and social media marketing.

In 2001 all the countries on the continent had connectivity and in the early part of the twenty-first century Africa has experienced the fastest rate in growth of internet usage in the world. Yet this is only part of the story. To date Africa remains the least connected continent in the world and registers some of the greatest disparities and inequalities in access to ICTs. The digital divide is still very much a reality. The contributors to this volume provide invaluable information on the development and use of ICTs in Kenya and East Africa. Specifically they raise questions about ICT policy and implementation, the respective roles of the public and private sectors, and the application of ICTs in government, education, and various industries. Based on empirical research, the authors demonstrate the considerable progress that has been made in the region to promote ICT initiatives and projects as part of the wider development agenda. They also explore the many challenges the next stage of ICT development is encountering, defined as infrastructural, technical, regulatory, distributional, social, cultural, and economic. Finally, the contributors consider the development of ICTs in wider continental and global contexts. They examine the complex intersections, interactions, and sometime contradictions between ICTs in Africa, the information society, knowledge economies, education, literacy, and enlightenment, socio-economic
