

Planning Economic Development

Planning Economic Development

- Resources are limited while human wants are unlimited.
- The problem is not only how to satisfy reasonable human wants but also how to properly allocate scarce resources.
- Development strategies of many less developed countries have been derived from Western models.
- The main focus of development is almost always on increasing GNP.

Industrialisierung in Äquatorialafrika Eike W. Schamp, 1978 Mobile Africa Rijk van Dijk, Dick Foeken, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2021-07-26 This anthology deals with the complexity variety and experience of all the forms of mobility we witness today in Sub Saharan Africa Three sets of issues are being discussed First the concept of mobility itself is considered and how it is conceived of in distinction from sedentarity Second which forms of mobility can be distinguished not only from the perspective of Western social sciences but also from the perspective of people's own experiences ideas notions etc Social science in Africa has particularly focused on rural urban migration but it is clear that there are many other forms as well Third the concept of mobility concerns not only geographical space but there are other spaces to consider as well In addition to forms of mobility there is a mobility of forms in which the perception of those other spaces plays a crucial role In short the book intends to turn the whole notion of mobility as a supposedly rupturing phenomenon on its head emphasizing that rather through travelling connections are established and continuity is experienced We are challenged to delve into the traveller's mind to think and follow their multi spatial livelihoods and to explore what it means to people if they move in a variety of spaces Bibliographie der Wirtschaftswissenschaften , 1978 Urgency of a New Dawn N. Nfor, 2016-01-29

Urgency of a New Dawn is the cry of most Southern Cameroonians against those who they experience to be an oppressive Machiavellian hostile parasitising captor like secessionist assimilationist discriminatory and dehumanising la Rpublique du Cameroun to which they were annexed through misleading UN and UK politics and Politics as a condition toward their independence from the UK in 1961 Extrapolating only on these two territories Urgency of a New Dawn is no less the sweeping story of one too many other peoples across Africa tormented by the heedless partitioning of the continent by colonisers and the consequential neo patrimonial and ethnic African Politics and politics of belonging Forced either into spaces that were never theirs or pushed out of spaces that they struggle to claim and or prove theirs many African peoples today find themselves engaging in endless battles not against colonisers but against fellow black Africans for the survival of their essence their culture languages traditions dignity modes of being and identification right to equality and freedom
