Louisiana Women Janet Allured, Judith F. Gentry, 2009 Moving chronologically from the colonial period to the present this collection of seventeen biographical essays provides a window into the social cultural and geographic milieu of women's lives in the state Within the context of the historical forces that have shaped Louisiana the contributors look at ways in which the women they profile either abided by prevailing gender norms or negotiated new models of behavior for themselves and other women Louisiana Women concludes with an essay that examines women's active responses to problems that emerged in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina The women whose absorbing life stories are collected here include Marie Therese Coincoin who was born a slave but later became a successful entrepreneur and Oretha Castle Haley civil rights activist and leader of the New Orleans chapter of CORE From such well known figures as author Kate Chopin and Voodoo priestess Marie Laveau to lesser known women such as Cajun musician Cleoma Breaux Falcon this volume reveals a compelling cross section of historical figures The women profiled vary by race class political affiliation and religious persuasion but they all share an unusual grit and determination that allowed them to turn trying circumstances into opportunity Lively yet rigorous these essays introduce readers to the courageous dedicated and inventive women who have been an essential part of Louisiana's history Historical figures included Marie Therese Coincoin The Baroness Pontalba Marie Laveau Sarah Katherine Kate Stone Eliza Jane Nicholson Kate Chopin Grace King Louisa Williams Robinson Her Daughters and Her Granddaughters Clementine Hunter Dorothy Dix True Methodist Women Cleoma Breaux Falcon Caroline Dormon Mary Land Rowena Spencer Oretha Castle Haley Louisiana Women and Hurricane Katrina Lyle Saxon James W. Ucko, 2006 Over the last thirty years issues of culture identity and meaning have moved out of the academic sphere to become central to politics and society at all levels from the local to the global Archaeology has been at the forefront of these moves towards a greater engagement with the non academic world often in an extremely practical and direct way for example in the disputes about the repatriation of human burials Such disputes have been central to the recognition that previously marginalised groups have rights in their own past which are important for their future The essays in this book look back at some of the most important events where a role for an archaeology concerned with the past in the present first emerged and look forward to the practical and theoretical issues now central to a socially engaged discipline and shaping its future This book is published in honour of Professor Peter Ucko who has played an unparalleled role in promoting awareness of the core issues in this volume among archaeologists The Planters' Monthly, 1883 A Guide to Records of Ante-bellum Southern Plantations from the Revolution Through the Civil War, 1985 The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Philip Alexander Bruce, William Glover Stanard, 1897 A Guide to the Microfilm Edition of Records of Ante-bellum Southern Plantations from the Revolution Through the Civil War: Selections from Another popular platform for Plantation Memo books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare,
