The Idea of the Cottage in English Architecture, 1760 - 1860 Daniel Maudlin, 2015-07-24 The Idea of the Cottage in English Architecture is a history of the late Georgian phenomenon of the architect designed cottage and the architectural discourse that articulated it It is a study of small buildings built on country estates and not so small buildings built in picturesque rural settings resort towns and suburban developments At the heart of the English idea of the cottage is the Classical notion of retreat from the city to the countryside This idea was adopted and adapted by the Augustan infused culture of eighteenth century England where it gained popularity with writers artists architects and their wealthy patrons who from the later eighteenth century commissioned retreats gate lodges estate workers housing and seaside villas designed to appear as cottages The enthusiasm for cottages within polite society did not last By the mid nineteenth century cottage related building and book publishing had slowed and the idea of the cottage itself was eventually lost beneath the Tudor barge boards and decorative chimneystacks of the Historic Revival And yet while both designer and consumer have changed over time the idea of the cottage as the ideal rural retreat continues to resonate through English architecture and English culture

Northern Money, Southern Land Chlotilde R. Martin, 2020-03-18 An enchanting mix of gossip and history from the era when parts of the Old South met their new owners In the early 1930s Chlotilde R Martin of Beaufort South Carolina wrote a series of articles for the Charleston News and Courier documenting the social and economic transformation of the lowcountry coast as an influx of wealthy northerners began buying scores of old local plantations Her articles combined the name dropping chatter of the lowcountry social register with reflections on the tension between past and present in the old rice and cotton kingdoms of South Carolina Edited by Robert B Cuthbert and Stephen G Hoffius Northern Money Southern Land collects Martin s articles and augments them with photographs and historical annotations to carry their stories forward to the present day As Martin recounted the new owners of these coastal properties ranked among the most successful businessmen in the country and included members of the Doubleday Du Pont Hutton Kress Whitney Guggenheim and Vanderbilt families Among the later owners are media magnate Ted Turner and boxer Joe Frazier The plantation houses they bought and the homes they built are some of the most important architectural structures in the Palmetto State although many are rarely seen by the public In some fifty articles drawn from interviews with property owners and visits to their newly acquired lands Martin described almost eighty estates covering some three hundred thousand acres of Beaufort Jasper Hampton Colleton and Berkeley counties Martin s lively sketches included stories of wealthy young playboys who brought Broadway showgirls down for decadent parties tales of the first nudist colony in America and exchanges with African American farmhands who wanted to travel to New York to see their employers primary homes which they had been assured were piled high with gold and silver In the process Martin painted a fascinating landscape of a southern coastline changing hands and on the verge of dramatic redevelopment Her tales here updated by Cuthbert and Hoffius will bring modern readers onto many little known plantations in the southern part of South Carolina and provide a wealth of knowledge about the history of vexing tensions between development and conservation that remain a defining aspect of lowcountry life Against All Odds Paul Porwoll,2014 This history of the oldest surviving church south of Virginia and the only remaining colonial cruciform church in South Carolina is one of wealth and poverty acclaim and anonymity slavery and freedom war and peace quarreling and cooperation failure and achievement Jacket The History and Archaeology of Kiawah Island, Charleston County, South Carolina Michael Trinkley,Natalie Adams,1993
