Planters Prospect Privilege And Slavery In Plantation Paintings:

The Planter's Prospect John Michael Vlach, 2002 Planter's Prospect Privilege and Slavery in Plantation Paintings

Slavery, Geography and Empire in Nineteenth-Century Marine Landscapes of Montreal and Jamaica Charmaine A.

Nelson, 2017-07-05 Slavery Geography and Empire in Nineteenth Century Marine Landscapes of Montreal and Jamaica is among the first Slavery Studies books and the first in Art History to juxtapose temperate and tropical slavery Charmaine A Nelson explores the central role of geography and its racialized representation as landscape art in imperial conquest One could easily assume that nineteenth century Montreal and Jamaica were worlds apart but through her astute examination of marine landscape art the author re connects these two significant British island colonies sites of colonial ports with profound economic and military value Through an analysis of prints illustrated travel books and maps the author exposes the fallacy of their disconnection arguing instead that the separation of these colonies was a retroactive fabrication designed in part to rid Canada of its deeply colonial history as an integral part of Britain's global trading network which enriched the motherland through extensive trade in crops produced by enslaved workers on tropical plantations The first study to explore James Hakewill's Jamaican landscapes and William Clark's Antiguan genre studies in depth it also examines the Montreal landscapes of artists including Thomas Davies Robert Sproule George Heriot and James Duncan Breaking new ground Nelson reveals how gender and race mediated the aesthetic and scientific access of such mainly white male artists She analyzes this moment of deep political crisis for British slave owners between the end of the slave trade in 1807 and complete abolition in 1833 who employed visual culture to imagine spaces free of conflict and to alleviate their pervasive anxiety about slave resistance Nelson explores how vision and cartographic knowledge translated into authority which allowed colonizers to civilize the terrains of the so called New World while belying the oppression of slavery and indigenous displacement

Handbuch Geschichte der Sklaverei Michael Zeuske, 2019-05-20 Michael Zeuske hat sein Standardwerk für die zweite Auflage komplett bearbeitet und aktualisiert sowie deutlich erweitert Die Geschichte der Sklaverei wird in diesem Handbuch erstmalig in globalgeschichtlicher Perspektive systematisch dargestellt Ausgangspunkt ist ein Verständnis von Sklaverei als Kapitalisierung menschlicher Kräfte Analysiert werden die unterschiedlichsten Formen Typen und Entwicklungsepochen Plateaus von Sklavereien und Menschenhandelssystemen auf allen Kontinenten Ozeanen und Meeren in ihrer jeweiligen Benennung und ihrem historisch kulturellen Kontext Auf breiter empirischer Basis entsteht auf diese Weise eine Geschichte der Sklaverei die ca 10 000 v u Z begann und bis in die heutige Zeit andauert Generations of Captivity Ira Berlin, 2004-09-30 Ira Berlin traces the history of African American slavery in the United States from its beginnings in the seventeenth century to its fiery demise nearly three hundred years later Most Americans black and white have a singular vision of slavery one fixed in the mid nineteenth century when most American slaves grew cotton resided in the deep South and subscribed to Christianity Here however Berlin offers a dynamic vision a major reinterpretation in which slaves and their owners continually renegotiated the terms of captivity Slavery was thus made and remade by successive generations of Africans and African Americans who lived through settlement and adaptation plantation life economic transformations revolution forced migration war and ultimately emancipation Berlin's understanding of the processes that continually transformed the lives of slaves makes Generations of Captivity essential reading for anyone interested in the evolution of antebellum America Connecting the Charter Generation to the development of Atlantic society in the seventeenth century the Plantation Generation to the reconstruction of colonial society in the eighteenth century the Revolutionary Generation to the Age of Revolutions and the Migration Generation to American expansionism in the nineteenth century Berlin integrates the history of slavery into the larger story of American life He demonstrates how enslaved black people by adapting to changing circumstances prepared for the moment when they could seize liberty and declare themselves the Freedom Generation This epic story told by a master historian provides a rich understanding of the experience of African American slaves an experience that continues to mobilize American thought and passions today

Making the American Dream Work Laurant Lee, 2008-08-01 What can a small industrial city in Virginia named Hopewell tell us about its experiment in possibilities Located at the intersection of the Appomattox and James Rivers this wondrous place was poised to yield the greatest hope ever From America's founding years to the twenty first century Hopewell's historic sights and the stories that citizens tell about their lives provide glimpses into an ever changing landscape that embodies all the American dream has come to symbolize

The Sugar Masters Richard Follett, 2007-02-01 Focusing on the master slave relationship in Louisiana's antebellum sugarcane country The Sugar Masters explores how a modern capitalist mind set among planters meshed with old style paternalistic attitudes to create one of the South's most insidiously oppressive labor systems As author Richard Follett vividly demonstrates the agricultural paradise of Louisiana's thriving sugarcane fields came at an unconscionable cost to slaves Thanks to technological and business innovations sugar planters stood as models of capitalist entrepreneurship by midcentury But above all labor management was the secret to their impressive success Follett explains how in exchange for increased productivity and efficiency they offered their slaves a range of incentives such as greater autonomy improved accommodations and even financial remuneration These material gains however were only short term According to Follett many of Louisiana's sugar elite presented their incentives with a facade of paternal reciprocity that seemingly bound the slaves' interests to the apparent goodwill of the masters but in fact the owners sought to control every aspect of the slaves' lives from reproduction to discretionary income Slaves responded to this display of paternalism by trying to enhance their rights under bondage but the constant bargaining process invariably led to compromises on their part and the grueling production pace never relented The only respite from their masters' demands lay in fashioning their own society including outlets for religion leisure and trade Until recently scholars have viewed planters as either paternalistic lords who eschewed marketplace values or as entrepreneurs driven to business success Follett offers a new view of the sugar masters as embracing both the capitalist market and a social ideology based on hierarchy honor and paternalism His stunning synthesis of empirical research demographics study and social and cultural history sets a new standard for this subject Civil War Book Review ,1999 Exposing Slavery Matthew Fox-Amato,2019-03-01 Drawing upon unpublished and little studied photographs of slaves ex slaves and abolitionists Fox Amato argues that slavery abolition and race in antebellum America cannot be understood without looking at the visual culture photography spawned or the development of photography without considering how slavery shaped it Thomas Satterwhite Noble (1835-1907) Tuliza Kamirah Fleming,2008 Examines how Thomas Satterwhite Noble s African American imagery reflected and interpreted issues concerning slavery in the upper South the internal slave trade miscegenation and abolition Shifts scholarly emphasis on Noble s works from discussion relating to the manner in which African Americans were portrayed to how these images were perceived by contemporary reconstruction audiences Adapted from author s abstract Southern Studies ,2004 An interdisciplinary journal of the South The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Philip Alexander Bruce,William Glover Stanard,2005 Vernacular Architecture Newsletter ,2002 Virginia Libraries ,2002 The Magazine Antiques ,2002 Morris Museum of Art Morris Museum of Art (Augusta, Ga.),2002 Composing Urban History and the Constitution of Civic Identities John J. Czaplicka,Blair A. Ruble,Lauren Crabtree,2003-07-29 Composing Urban History and the Constitution of Civic Identities tells the story of how fractured urban communities sometimes succeed and sometimes fail at creating a way of life embracing the many varieties of people and institutions that make cities both urban and urbane The volume studies nine cities long divided by race nationality class and religion Washington D C Kaliningrad St Petersburg L viv Prague Vienna Berlin Barcelona and Riga All have undergone greater and lesser transitions from authoritarian to democratic forms of government creating new needs and opportunities to shape a civic identity The contributors study these cities presentations of their own history as embodied in everything from museum exhibits to architecture to street names Do a city s efforts at material renewal and reform reflect and promote an inclusive pluralistic self image that supports nascent democratic institutions or an exclusionary one that claims all the city for some particular group Drawing on the experiences of the past half century Composing Urban History and the Constitution of Civic Identities shows how the emergence of pluralistic images of the past present and future can open the way for more pluralistic understandings of power and social relations Contributors are John Czaplicka Howard Gillette Jr Grigorii V Golosov Yaroslav Hrytsak Brian Ladd Siegfried Mattl James A Miller Jiri Musil Cynthia Paces Blair A Ruble Olga Sezneva Ojars Sparitis Pep Subiros Victor Susak Ilya Utekhin and John Michael Vlach Wounds of Returning Kitchens, Smokehouses, and Privies Michael Olmert,2009 Takes us into the eighteenth century backyards of colonial America He explores the many small outbuildings that can still be found at obscure rural farmsteads throughout throughout the

Tidewater and greater mid Atlantic in towns like Williamsburg and Annapolis and at elite plantations such as Mount Vernon and Monticello Explains how these well made buildings actually functioned The author is riveted by the history of outbuildings their architecture patterns of use folklore and even their literary presence In two appendixes he also considers octagonal and hexagonal structures which had special significance both doctrinal and cultural in early America from publisher description Tennessee Historical Quarterly ,2017 Martha Wright Ambrose (1914-2000) Roulhac Toledano,Scott Veazey,2016 In 2003 Scott Veazey purchased the home of his lifelong friend and mentor New Orleans artist Martha Wright Ambrose and discovered a treasure trove of her art in a leaky garage Ambrose s work had been largely forgotten but a chance encounter between Veazey and award winning art and architectural historian and writer Roulhac Toledano brought revived interest in her art Thoroughly researching the artist s life in interviews published sources and archives Toledano and Veazey have filled in the story that is Martha Ambrose from her formal art education to her marriage and travels with fellow artist Jack Ambrose and her career as an artist teacher and activist in the New Orleans community Material collected and put into print here for the first time include information not only on and examples of Ambrose s work but also on her context as a twentieth century Southern Regional artist
