Restoration and Reclamation of Boreal Ecosystems Dale Vitt, Jagtar Bhatti, 2012-09-20 Boreal ecosystems contain one third of the world's forests and stored carbon but these regions are under increasing threat from both natural and anthropogenic disturbances Written by leaders from the forefront of private public and academic sectors Restoration and Reclamation of Boreal Ecosystems emphasises a broad conceptual approach to the specific application of empirical research into development planning restoration and modelling of these ecosystems The importance of this is highlighted at a time of global climate change as these ecosystems act as carbon sinks There is a focus on the reclamation of exploited ecosystems from a holistic standpoint ranging from environmental and edaphic variables to the restoration of keystone flora Recent advances in quantification of ecosystem services such as habitat suitability and carbon storage modelling are also detailed The book contains case studies which address how both historical and novel assemblages can provide ecosystem stability under projected climatic and land use scenarios Restoring Proceedings RMRS. ,1998 Wildlife Production Systems Robert J. Hudson, K. R. Drew, L. M. Baskin, 1989-06 This book first published in 1989 examines the controversial position of commercial utilisation in relation to wildlife conservation Production of large mammals has earned respectability as an agricultural strategy and its evaluation has been listed as a priority requirement in the World Conservation Strategy However many authorities question whether wildlife production is a viable economic and environmental strategy and suggest that it runs counter to its claimed purpose This book evaluates this controversy by chronicling the changing role of wildlife and by reflecting on the implications of these trends The book should be of interest to people both applauding and deploring the use of wildlife in this economic role Canadian Journal of
