Planetary Politics:

The Palgrave Handbook of Global Politics in the 22nd Century Laura Horn, Ayşem Mert, Franziska Müller, 2023-01-01 This handbook offers a unique approach to the question How do scholars write the future of global politics Written in futuristic style around the 200 year anniversary of the birth of International Relations IR as an academic discipline the contributions engage in world building and imagine different futures of IR Set in a multiverse 23 chapters draw on a range of possible themes and imaginaries for instance post pandemic conditions the Anthropocene and not least academic practices and the role of researchers A concluding chapter anchors these explorations in contemporary discussions The book mirrors the format and style of existing handbooks combining outlines and discussions of theories structures processes and core issues in IR with an academic science fiction account of how these might play out over the course of the next century In doing so the book challenges IR and provides alternative imaginaries rather than predicting future conditions for all humanity The book invites readers to reflect on how thinking about the future has become an increasingly radical but more than ever necessary act

The Future Knowledge Compendium Peter Ellyard, 2023-03-03 THRIVING IN THE 21ST CENTURY Humans have a unique capability to both understand their situation in the world and to envision and act to realise their aspirations in the emerging world And most of us would welcome knowing how we can become ever more skilful at both understanding and shaping the future of our emerging world so that we can thrive in it The 21st century is very different from the 20th century Globalisation the greatest economic prosperity uplifting machine humanity has ever invented and mass education are combining to sweep humanity into an emerging interdependent global village It is creating a global educated middle class that will number 5 billion in 2030 In this emerging world a world where our future prosperity will be increasingly based on metaphysical wealth on what we know 20th century nation first competitive win lose mindsets and agendas can no longer work These now yesteryear mindsets will instead undermine our best endeavours including making our future ever more climate and pandemic safe Humanity is now beginning to learn that it now has no option but to adopt planet first collaborative win win values and mindsets if it wishes to shape our emerging global village so that it can become liveable for all ever more prosperous harmonious inclusive sustainable healthy and secure Meeting these challenges successfully will require that humanity innovates for itself a new future knowledge curriculum so that it can economically thrive in a sustainable and humane manner Peter Ellyard has asked the question what would be the contents of such a curriculum In The Future Knowledge Compendium A Curriculum for Thriving in the 21st Century he has sought to answer this question

Civil Society: Concepts, Challenges, Contexts Michael Hoelscher, Regina A. List, Alexander Ruser, Stefan Toepler, 2022-05-10 This volume is a collection of original essays prepared by colleagues collaborators and former students on the occasion of Helmut K Anheier's 65th birthday and retirement from the University of Heidelberg An internationally recognized pioneer of nonprofit and civil society studies Anheier focused his work on providing clarity around 1 civil society local and global observing its origins and trajectory and developing theories to explain it 2 the nonprofit sector and institutions within and extending from it including nonprofit organizations philanthropy and social investment and 3 culture as it relates to democracy and back to civil society The essays in this volume refer to these concepts and position them in the context of developments over the last two to three decades The volume is arranged in three sections The first section comprises essays that elucidate concepts and probe theories in the field The second section presents chapters discussing current global challenges and trends in the focal areas The third and final section then comprises country and regional case studies illustrating important aspects of the global challenges or theoretical issues of the two preceding sections A fascinating and up to date overview of key issues and trends in civil society and nonprofit research by an international collection of eminent scholars in these fields this book will be attractive to civil society and nonprofit sector researchers as well as a broader academic community of political scientists sociologists economists and cultural experts

Planetary Politics Lorenzo Marsili, 2020-12-03 The global crisis of our time involves a complex of ecological economic technological and migratory challenges that no state is able to control The result is a provincialisation of our democracies with respect to the new planetary powers confronting humanity It is from this that our increasingly impotent and rabid politics stems Paradoxical as it may seem it is precisely the decline of the nation state that is the source of the great nationalist uprising of our time We need a new planetary vision that is able to reclaim and liberate our world starting today and engaging each of us This is the task of philosophy as much as it is of politics of theory as it is of activism Connecting with a new generation taking to the streets across the globe this book tells the story of the ever closer union of our world from the age of empire to the climate crisis and presents a plea and a roadmap to step beyond the mental and material boundaries of our nations

The Politics of Compassion and Transformation Dick W. Simpson, 1989 In our time we require a religion ethics and politics adequate to confront the global crises we face In our scientific era of progress we might expect to look with confidence to the scientific disciplines of political science sociology and economics to solve the problems of our civilization We might also look to the older disciplines of religion and ethics to determine our values and to tell us what we ought to do But the sad truth is that the dominant paradigms methods and conclusions of the social sciences and humanities are inadequate to this task We need a new politics of compassion and transformation
