Techno-economics of Steel Plants Ratnakar Gedam,1999 OECD Green Growth Studies Towards Green Growth in Southeast Asia OECD,2014-11-11 Carried out in consultation with officials and researchers from across the region Towards Green Growth in Southeast Asia provides a framework for regional leaders to design their own solutions to move their countries towards green growth Gendered Paradoxes Amy Lind,2007-08-09 Since the early 1980s Ecuador has experienced a series of events unparalleled in its history Its free market strategies exacerbated the debt crisis and in response new forms of social movement organizing arose among the country s poor including women s groups Gendered

Paradoxes focuses on women s participation in the political and economic restructuring process of the past twenty five years showing how in their daily struggle for survival Ecuadorian women have both reinforced and embraced the neoliberal model yet also challenged its exclusionary nature Drawing on her extensive ethnographic fieldwork and employing an approach combining political economy and cultural politics Amy Lind charts the growth of several strands of women s activism and identifies how they have helped redefine often in contradictory ways the real and imagined boundaries of neoliberal development discourse and practice In her analysis of this ambivalent and unfinished cultural project of modernity in the Andes she examines state policies and their effects on women of various social sectors women s community development initiatives and responses to the debt crisis and the roles played by feminist issue networks in reshaping national and international policy agendas in Ecuador and in developing a transnationally influenced locally based feminist movement

Statistical Capacity Building Mr.Thomas K. Morrison,2005-11-16 IMF technical assistance provided by the Statistics Department toward assisting IMF member countries in developing the ability to provide reliable and comparable economic and financial data on a timely basis to policymakers and markets has increased more than fourfold over the past decade This assistance has proven critical in countries building their statistical capacity so as to come into line with international data standards in an increasingly globalized and electronically interconnected world Statistical Capacity Building Case Studies and Lessons Learned presents four case studies drawn from experience in three countries in transition to the market two of which were also in postconflict situations in the 1990s and early 2000s Cambodia Bosnia and Herzegovina and Ukraine Issues of setting institutional and statistical arrangements strategies and implementation are examined and lessons learned
