Planning Jerusalem:

Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Eran Neuman, 2023-11-30 Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Building Social Pragmatism offers the first comprehensive survey of the work of Arieh Sharon and analyzes and discusses his designs and plans in relation to the emergence of the State of Israel A graduate of the Bauhaus Sharon worked for a few years at the office of Hannes Mayer before returning to Mandatory Palestine There he established his office which was occupied in its first years in planning kibbutzim and residential buildings in Tel Aviv After the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 Arieh Sharon became the director and chief architect of the National Planning Department where he was asked to devise the young country's first national masterplan Known as the Sharon Plan it was instrumental in shaping the development of the new nation During the 1950s and 1960s Sharon designed many of Israel's institutions including hospitals and buildings on university campuses This book presents Sharon's exceptionally wide range of work and examines his perception of architecture in both socialist and pragmatist terms It also explores Sharon's modernist approach to architecture and his subsequent shift to Brutalist architecture when he partnered with Benjamin Idelson in the 1950s and when his son Eldar Sharon joined the office in 1964 Thus the book contributes a missing chapter in the historiography of Israeli architecture in particular and of modern architecture overall This book will be of interest to researchers in architecture modern architecture Israel studies Middle Eastern studies and migration of knowledge Planning Jerusalem Aryeh Sharon, David Anatol Brutzkus, Eldar Sharon, 1973 The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places Wendy Pullan, Maximilian Sternberg, Lefkos Kyriacou, Craig Larkin, Michael Dumper, 2013-11-20 The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places investigates the role of architecture and urban identity in relation to the political economy of the city and its wider state context seen through the lens of the holy places Reflecting the broad disciplinary backgrounds of the authors this book provides perspectives from architecture urbanism and politics and provides in depth investigations of historical ethnographic and policy related case studies The research is substantiated by fieldwork carried out in Jerusalem over the past ten years as part of the ESRC Large Grants project Conflict in Cities By analysing new dynamics of radicalisation through land seizure the politicisation of parklands and tourism the strategic manipulation of archaeological and historical narratives and material culture and through examination of general appropriation of Jerusalem's varied rituals memories and symbolism for factional uses the book reveals how possibilities of co existence are seriously threatened in Jerusalem Shedding new light on the key role played by everyday urban life and its spatial settings for any future political agreements about the city and its religious sites this book is a useful reference work for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Architecture Religion and Urban Studies Shaping Jerusalem Francesco Chiodelli, 2016-10-14 Shaping Jerusalem Spatial planning politics and the conflict focuses on a hidden facet of the Israeli Palestinian conflict the relentless reshaping of the Holy City by the Israeli authorities through urban policies spatial plans infrastructural and architectural projects land use and building regulations From a political point of view the Israeli Palestinian conflict may appear to be at an impasse however it is precisely by looking at the city's physical space that one can perceive that a war of cement and stone is under way Many books have been written on the Israeli Palestinian conflict over Jerusalem some of them have focused on the urban fabric Shaping Jerusalem uniquely discusses the role of Israeli spatial actions within the conflict It argues that Israel's main political objective control over the whole city is ordinarily and silently pursued through physical devices which permanently modify the territory and the urban fabric Relying on strong empirical evidence and data through the analysis of statistical data official policies urban projects and laws author Francesco Chiodelli substantiates the political discussion with facts and figures about the current territorial situation of the city and about the Israeli policies implemented in the city in the past six decades Planning Jerusalem

Aryeh Sharon, 1974 The Ministry of the Interior and the Municipality of Jerusalem have together embarked on a masterplan for the Old City designed to preserve its unique values status and treasure past and present While taking account of modern urban needs this plan seeks meticulously to safeguard the spirit the character and the sites of antiquity of this remarkable city Introduction Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929-1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book's award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man's burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies
