Terrebonne Christopher Everette Cenac Sr., 2016-09-01 Winner of a 2017 Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities Book of the Year Award This book represents the first time that the known history and a significant amount of new information has been compiled into a single written record about one of the most important eras in the south central coastal bayou parish of Terrebonne The book makes clear the unique geographical topographical and sociological conditions that beckoned the first settlers who developed the large estates that became sugar plantations This first of four planned volumes chronicles details about founders and their estates along Bayou Terrebonne from its headwaters in the northern civil parish to its most southerly reaches near the Gulf of Mexico Those and other parish plantations along important waterways contributed significantly to the dominance of King Sugar in Louisiana The rich soils and opportunities of the area became the overriding reason many well heeled Anglo Americans moved there to join Francophone locals in cultivating the crop From that nineteenth century period up to the twentieth century s side effects of World Wars I and II Hard Scrabble to Hallelujah Volume I Bayou Terrebonne describes important yet widely unrecognized geography and history Today cultural and physical legacies such as ex slave founded communities and place names endure from the time that the planter society was the driving economic force of this fascinating region      Marie Adrien Persac H. Parrott Bacot, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, Sally

Kittredge Reeves, John Lawrence, John Magill, 2000-09-01 Marie Adrien Persac 1823 1873 was a French born Louisiana artist who worked in a range of mediums to produce a unique view of the lower Mississippi Valley at midcentury In the first catalogued exhibition devoted solely to this multifaceted but overlooked talent paintings drawings maps and photographs from numerous holdings have been brought together to present fresh insights and reevaluate this artist s place in the annals of American history and material culture Due in part to his broad talents artist cartographer architect civil engineer photographer and art teacher Persac's work is of major importance to Southern history researchers and art historians. His paintings of south Louisiana plantation houses have captured that now varnished lifestyle in minute detail approximating the exactitude of architectural drafting. Today this series is invaluable to scholars of the period as is Persac's painting of a steamboat interior, the only one known to exist, and another French Opera House which burned to the ground in 1919. The Genie, 1980. Louisiana Architecture, 1714-1830 Fred Daspit, 1996. Louisiana Architecture, 1714-1820 Fred Daspit, 2004. Louisiana Architecture 1714-1820 examines major and minor architectural structures throughout Louisiana, Mississippi from Port Gibson to the Gulf Coast and several French settlements in the Upper Mississippi Valley. Organized chronologically, it begins with aboriginal structures and continues onto early constructions built by the French in Louisiana. It advances to discuss the founding of New Orleans in 1720 and ends with structures in Baton Rouge. A glossary, maps of the Louisiana Purchase, specific city maps and different routes for interested readers to explore significant structures are also included.
