Plants The Indonesian Heritage Series:

The Javanese Travels of Purwalelana Judith E. Bosnak, Frans X. Koot, 2021-06-24 The Javanese nobleman Rad n Mas Arya Candranegara V 1837 85 alias Purwalelana journeyed across his homeland during the rapidly changing times of the nineteenth century He travelled around 5 000 kilometres by horse and carriage between 1860 and 1875 His eye witness account The Travels of Purwalelana gives an inside view of Java at the time part of the Dutch East Indies Candranegara explains habits and traditions of both the Javanese and the Dutch he describes the architecture of cities and temples and he marvels about the beautiful tropical landscape as well as about the latest technological inventions such as steam trains horse drawn trams and gas lanterns This Hakluyt publication illustrated with contemporaneous images presents the rare perspective of an Indonesian traveller living in colonial times The author grew up as a member of a Javanese noble family in the hybrid world of the colonial upper class He received a western style education but also learnt how to follow Javanese traditions and to be a good Muslim In 1858 he was appointed to the high rank of Regent of Kudus by the colonial government Candranegara wrote his book under the pseudonym Purwalelana probably because he considered publishing to be an adventurous undertaking and possibly also because it gave him freedom to arrange the events in his own way The Travels represents the first Javanese travelogue ever written and as such it broke with existing traditions Candranegara used prose instead of poetry wrote from a first person perspective rather than a third person and he described present society rather than dwelling upon the common literary theme of kings in battle The result is a lively story in which the armchair traveller shares his experiences on the road It provides its readers with a range of people and topics pivotal to developments in nineteenth century Java a treasure trove for historians and cultural anthropologists alike The volume includes 24 colour illustrations Indonesia, News & Views, 1995 Flora Malesiana Bulletin, 1992 Indonesian Heritage: Plants, 1996 News & Views, Indonesia, 1992 Indonesian Heritage John Miksic, 1996 The ancient history of Indonesia is presented alongside colourful illustrations photographs and maps creating a fascinating resource on Indonesia s rich and ancient culture Indonesian Heritage Tony Whitten, Jane Whitten, 1996 Perfect Order J. Stephen Lansing, 2012-09-16 Along rivers in Bali small groups of farmers meet regularly in water temples to manage their irrigation systems They have done so for a thousand years Over the centuries water temple networks have expanded to manage the ecology of rice terraces at the scale of whole watersheds Although each group focuses on its own problems a global solution nonetheless emerges that optimizes irrigation flows for everyone Did someone have to design Bali s water temple networks or could they have emerged from a self organizing process Perfect Order a groundbreaking work at the nexus of conservation complexity theory and anthropology describes a series of fieldwork projects triggered by this question ranging from the archaeology of the water temples to their ecological functions and their place in Balinese cosmology Stephen Lansing shows that the temple networks are fragile vulnerable to the cross currents produced by competition among male descent groups But the feminine rites of water temples mirror the farmers awareness that when they act in unison small miracles of order occur regularly as the jewel like perfection of the rice terraces produces general prosperity Much of this is barely visible from within the horizons of Western social theory The fruit of a decade of multidisciplinary research this absorbing book shows that even as researchers probe the foundations of cooperation in the water temple networks the very existence of the traditional farming techniques they represent is threatened by large scale development projects Indonesia Joshua Eliot,Liz Capaldi,Jane

Bickersteth,David Woodley,Jasmine Saville,2001 It s been said a thousand times Indonesia is an unlikely country Of all the countries of Asia it is the hardest to corral There is no point in looking for a shared history prior to the colonial period or a shared culture or even a certain uniformity of environment Divided between over 13 000 islands hundreds of languages and cultures several time zones and spread over an expanse of sea linking Asia with Australasia it is truly a kaleidoscopic place
