Plato's Heirs James D. Lester,1996 The Challenge of Pluralism and the Middle Way of Islam Jeremy Henzell-Thomas,2002 This paper is an impassioned plea appealing to the higher virtues of man to realise within himself and the society around him a spiritually deeper and more multiculturally aware social order In our largely interdependent but increasingly volatile world it is imperative that we not only understand ourselves but the myriad of cultures existing around us The paper points to the the middle way as an important area of convergence between the West and Islam presenting with great vision the case that a revival of the ideals principles and ethics of the middle way will restore mankind s sense of balance beauty harmony and justice The Challenge Of Pluralism And The Middle Way Of Islam Dr. Jermey Henzell-Thomas,2001-01-01 This paper is an impassioned plea appealing to the higher virtues of man to realise within himself and the society around him a spiritually deeper and more multiculturally aware social order In our largely interdependent but increasingly volatile world it is imperative that we not only understand ourselves but the myriad of cultures existing around us The paper points to the the middle way as an important area of convergence between the West and Islam presenting with great vision the case that a revival of the ideals principles and ethics of the middle way will restore mankind s sense of balance beauty harmony and justice Rethinking Reform in Higher Education Ziauddin Sardar,Jeremy Henzell-Thomas,2017-08-02 The Reform in Higher Education in Muslim Societies is in sum a paradigm shift in perspective driven by important considerations including the aims of education itself It may require reforming existing disciplines inventing new ones as well as working in conjunction with current knowledge s and discourses by taking effective account of the ethical spiritual norms of Muslim society the guiding principles that it operates under which in turn mark the underlying basis of its makeup and spiritual identity Rather than creating divisions reform of Higher Education in Muslim Societies recognizes the plurality and diversity of the modern networked world and seeks to replace sterile and uniform approaches to knowledge with a broader and more creative understanding of reality as lived on different soils and different cultures Moderation balance and effective communication are paramount features of the underlying philosophy The Power of Education Jeremy Hanezell-Thomas,2018-01-01 Knowledge is Power a statement commonly attributed to an eminent English philosopher and scientist in 1597 still highlights today the importance of knowledge in the modern world Education forms the basis of our knowledge and its development from our earliest experiences at school through to Higher Education Individuals use their knowledge in their professional and personal lives and society as a collective of individuals shapes the world in which we live Therefore the power of education is one of the keys to developing a successful society and benefits humanity at large But things have gone very wrong Society values and morals are all in decline How has education lost its power to build an effective and fair society How can this decline be reversed In The Power of Education the author goes back to first principles and asks what is education and what do individuals and society need from education

Reconnecting education with the heart and soul of humanity and finding that great purpose of mankind is paramount This is distinct from a knowledge factory that merely develops individuals for material advancement and personal progression Values morals compassion empathy gratitude mutual respect fairness and social responsibility are all essential traits for individuals that collectively form a successful society and these traits need to be instilled during the entire educational experience By rethinking and developing an effective education methodology one can work towards building a better world based upon equality and fairness for all

Islam and Global Dialogue Roger Boase,2016-05-06 At a time when the world is becoming increasingly interdependent multi cultural and multi religious the concept of religious pluralism is under assault as a result of hatred prejudice and misunderstanding from both religious exclusivists and dogmatic secularists In this important and timely book twenty internationally acclaimed scholars and leading religious thinkers respond to contemporary challenges in different ways Some discuss the idea of a dialogue of civilisations others explore the interfaith principles and ethical resources of their own spiritual traditions All of them reject the notion that any single religion can claim a monopoly of wisdom all are committed to the ideal of a just and peaceful society in which people of different religions and cultures can happily coexist More space is here given to Islam than to Judaism and Christianity because as a result of negative stereotypes it is the most misunderstood of the major world religions HRH Prince Hassan bin Talal of Jordan contributes the Foreword

Diverse Identities James D. Lester,1996 Wide range of essays examining multicultural issues divided into sections on family issues of identity place language and combating prejudice
