

How to Play Handball

Handball is an invasion game played between two teams. Teams can be made up of five to seven players, depending on class size and available space. The game involves passing and bouncing a ball using the hands, trying to throw it into the goal of the opposition team. The aim is to score as many goals as possible. Each goal scored is one point.

You will need:

- a court (indoor or outdoor), preferably with a 3 or 'small' marked on it, for example a netball court.
- two sets of different coloured t-shirts, one set per team.
- two goals (or four cones, used to mark out goals).
- a small, soft ball you can grip in one hand.

Positions

(adapt according to the number of players in each team)

There are five to seven players per team (multiple outfield players and one goalkeeper).

The goalkeeper stands after a goal is scored. They are the only players allowed in the 3 area.

A pivot plays in all areas of the court, apart from the 3.

A centre back is responsible for creating passages of play.
