Irvin S. Cobb Anita Lawson,1984-03 The story of Irvin S Cobb is a fascinating one for many reasons His life was not unusual at the time a Horatio Alger rise from poor boy to world authority through hard work Associate of celebrities of all kinds for two decades he died in Hollywood virtually forgotten having outlived the world he grew up in and which appreciated him Habari Safari Ralph Doerr,2009-11 All Hands ,1962 Heading Out Terence Young,2017-06-06 Who are the real campers Through hiking backpackers traversing the Appalachian Trail The family in an SUV making a tour of national parks and sleeping in tents at campgrounds People committed to the RV lifestyle who move their homes from state to state as season and whim dictate Terence Young would say all of the above Camping is one of the country s most popular pastimes tens of millions of Americans go camping every year Whether on foot on horseback or in RVs campers have been enjoying themselves for well more than a century during which time camping s appeal has shifted and evolved In Heading Out Young takes readers into nature and explores with them the history of camping in the United States Young shows how camping progressed from an impulse among city dwellers to seek temporary retreat from their exhausting everyday surroundings to a form of recreation so popular that an industry grew up around it to provide an endless supply of ever lighter and more convenient gear Young humanizes camping s history by spotlighting key figures in its development and a sampling of the campers and the variety of their excursions Readers will meet William H H Murray who launched a craze for camping in 1869 Mary Bedell who car camped around America for 12 000 miles in 1922 William Trent Jr who struggled to end racial segregation in national park campgrounds before World War II and Carolyn Patterson who worked with the U S Department of State in the 1960s and 1970s to introduce foreign service personnel to the real America through trailer camping These and many additional characters give readers a reason to don a headlamp pull up a chair beside the campfire and discover the invigorating and refreshing history of sleeping under the stars American West Karen R. Jones,2009-03-21 The American West used to be a story of gunfights glory wagon trails and linear progress Historians such as Frederick Jackson Turner and Hollywood movies such as Stagecoach 1939 and Shane 1953 cast the trans Mississippi region as a frontier of epic proportions where savagery met civilization and boys became men During the late 1980s this old way of seeing the West came under heavy fire Scholars such as Patricia Nelson Limerick and Richard White forged a fresh story of the region a new vision of the West based around the conquest of peoples and landscapes This book explores the bipolar world of Turner s Old West and Limerick s New West and reveals the values and ambiguities associated with both historical traditions Sections on Lewis and Clark the frontier and the cowboy sit alongside work on Indian genocide and women s trail diaries Images of the region as seen through the arcade Western Hollywood film and Disney theme parks confirm the West as a symbolic and contested landscape Tapping into popular fascination with the Cowboy Hollywood movies the Indian Wars and Custer s Last Stand the authors show the reader how to deconstruct the imagery and reality surrounding Western history Key Features Uses popular subjects the Cowboy Hollywood westerns the Indian Wars and Custer s Last Stand to enliven the text Includes 13 b w illustrations Interdisciplinary approach covers film literature art and historical artefacts
