Rowdy Rhymes:

Rowdy Rhymes, 1958 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1952
Includes Part 1A Books Slanguage Bernard Share, 2005 Are you a holy terror Are you a go boy Could you live on the skin of a rasher Or are you so hungry that you eat a farmer's arse through a hedge When you're on the razz do you get so buckled crippled and scuttered that you can't get your back outa the scratcher in the morning Never mind the answers if you understand the questions you are in Slanguage country If you don't you need to be This is the dictionary that glosses the words that real Irish people use in the streets each day every day Slang is elusive Some words and phrases are always there Others slip in and out of usage according to the whims of fashion This expanded edition of the standard dictionary of Irish slang includes many entries not in the 1997 edition It has dropped a few that have fallen out of favour and has revised others In all this edition is 25 per cent longer than its predecessor It will confirm Bernard Share's invaluable book in its position as the major work of its kind combining scholarship and a keen sense of fun Slanguage does justice to it by taking it seriously but not too seriously Wild Waters Richard Nairn, 2023-04-27 I often sit by the bank of the small river that flows through our farm in County Wicklow fascinated by its many moods Getting to know a river is like reading the story of a person's life from its young energetic stages in the hills to the slower moving mature river through to the tranquil water of lakes and finally to its resting place in the sea Richard Nairn is an ecologist who has been visiting waterways around Ireland for over half a century fascinated by how they sustain and enrich our lives Here he sets out on a year long adventure to explore every stretch and tributary of the Avonmore River which runs through Co Wicklow From source to sea he immerses himself in the wildlife archaeology history and people connected to the river Travelling to explore more of Ireland's rivers lakes wet woodlands ponds and canals Richard details encounters with dragonflies crayfish otters and great flocks of migratory waterbirds and finds himself awestruck by the sense of a lost wilderness they convey With our waterways now under serious threat this is a love letter to Ireland's rivers and lakes and a reminder of what we stand to lose Opens the window into a watery world Personal yet panoramic Colin Stafford Johnson filmmaker Rowdy Rhymes and Rec-im-itations Vincent Caprani, 2011-09-09 For about 300 years Dubliners have been creating ballads rec im itations and parodies commenting in verse form with a mischievous disregard for both the laws of libel and the canons of poetry on everything from social events public affairs the city's monuments and institutions politics murder cases and sporting events to their fellow citizens and street characters Many of the ballads in addition to showing the Dubliner's instinct for the value of words and wit also provide an easily accessible guide to the ordinary occurrences of life in the city and a glimpse into traditions of the past This is the tradition in which Vincent Caprani writes So if you want to be reminded of what happened to Gough's Statue in the Phaynix Park to learn more about The Whore of Hackballscross or if you want to be entertained by pomes that are by turns funny touching and nostalgic this is the very book for you Vulgar Verse & Variations, Rowdy Rhymes & Rec-im-itations
