Royal Visit:

Royals on tour Robert Aldrich, Cindy McCreery, 2018-05-13 Royals on Tour explores visits by European monarchs and princes to colonies and by indigenous royals to Europe in the 1800s and early 1900s with case studies of travel by royals from Britain France Portugal Germany Italy the Netherlands Belgium Japan the Dutch East Indies and French Indochina Such tours projected imperial dominion and asserted the status of non European dynasties The celebrity of royals the increased facility of travel and the interest of public and press made tours key encounters between Europeans and non Europeans The reception visitors received illustrate the dynamics of empire and international relations Ceremonies speeches and meetings formed part of the popular culture of empire and monarchy Mixed in with pageantry and protocol were profound questions about the role of monarchs imperial governance relationships between metropolitan and overseas elites and evolving expressions of nationalism

British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford, 2016-04-01 First published in 2001 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent cinema to the present day Now this new edition includes a wholly original second volume devoted to non fiction and documentary film an area in which the British film industry has particularly excelled All entries throughout this third edition have been revised and coverage has been extended through 1994 Together these two volumes provide a unique authoritative source of information for historians archivists librarians and film scholars

Canada and the End of Empire Phillip Alfred Buckner, 2005 Sir John Seeley once wrote that the British Empire was acquired in a fit of absence of mind Whatever the truth of this comment it is certainly arguable that the Empire was dismantled in such a fit This collection deals with a neglected subject in post Confederation Canadian history the implications to Canada and Canadians of British decolonization and the end of empire Canada and the End of Empire looks at Canadian diplomatic relations with the United Kingdom and the United States the Suez crisis the changing economic relationship with Great Britain in the 1950s and 1960s the role of educational and cultural institutions in maintaining the British connection the royal tour of 1959 the decision to adopt a new flag in 1964 the efforts to find a formula for repatriating the constitution the Canadianization of the Royal Canadian Navy and the attitude of First Nations to the changed nature of the Anglo Canadian relationship Historians in Commonwealth countries tend to view the end of British rule from a nationalist perspective Canada and the End of Empire challenges this view and demonstrates the centrality of imperial history in Canadian historiography An important addition to the growing canon of empire studies and imperial history this book will be of interest to historians of the Commonwealth and to scholars and students interested in the relationship between colonialism and nationalism
