Policing The Elephant:

The Administration and Management of Criminal Justice Organizations Stan Stojkovic, John Klofas, David B. Kalinich, 2004 Administrators of contemporary criminal justice organizations must balance their finite resources among an ever changing list of infinite demands Challenges come from a diverse range of constituent groups within an agency as well as from offenders and the community often resulting in contradictory requests The articles in this collection introduce the reader to the complexity of court police and correctional organizations resulting in an appreciation of the role of the administrator They question traditional methods and practices as administrators meet the organizational demands of the twenty first century Policing International Trade in Endangered Species Rosalind Reeve, 2014-02-25 A comprehensive examination of the way in which the Convention on the International Trade in Endangered Species CITES is implemented and policed CITES is one of the oldest international environmental agreements and has been responsible for some striking conservation successes But given the way it has evolved there are also some critical weaknesses that unscrupulous countries and commercial interests can exploit especially regarding information institutions and enforcement The convention needs reform and this book gives a trenchant critique including practical and effective recommendations for change Report on the Police Administration of the Province for 1896 ,1897 The Burma Police Journal ,1940 Montana ,1955 Book Review Digest ,2000 Compilation of the Circulars and General Orders of the Chief Commissioner of Assam Assam, 1885 Law as Culture and Culture as Law John Phillip Reid, 2000-05 Law as Culture and Culture as Law presents a spectrum of historical inquiries developing and engaging John Phillip Reid s insights and methodological approaches to legal and constitutional history The essays gathered in this volume span nearly three centuries and two continents ranging from the agonizing struggles over law religion and governance in late seventeenth century Ireland to the legal and constitutional regimes of governmental regulation in twentieth century New York Policing in the Community Dean J. Champion, George Eugene Rush, 1997 Provides extensive coverage of current practices and policies regarding policing in today s communities This book is divided into four major parts beginning with the background of policing in society and the exploration of police subcultures police discretion and professionalism police misconduct and its effect and police juvenile relations Community Police and Police Administrators The Police Court Companion ,1870 The Elephants of Style Bill Walsh, 2004-04-22 Advice on good writing from everybody s favorite editorial curmudgeon Persnickety cantankerous opinionated entertaining hilarious wise these are a few of the adjectives reviewers used to describe good writing maven Bill Walsh s previous book Lapsing Into a Comma Now picking up where he left off in Lapsing Walsh addresses the dozen or so biggest issues that every writer or editor must master He also offers a trunkload of good advice on the many little things that add up to good writing Featuring all the elements that made Lapsing such a fun read including Walsh s trademark acerbic wit and fascinating digressions on language and its discontents The Elephants of Style provides Tips on how to tame the elephants of style the most important frequently confused elements of good writing More of Walsh s popular Curmudgeon s Stylebook includes entries such as Snarky Specificity Metaphors Near and Far Actually is the New Like and other uses and misuses of language Expert advice for writers and editors on how to work together for best results Invitation to an Execution Gordon Morris Bakken,2010-08-16 Until the early twentieth century printed invitations to executions issued by lawmen were a vital part of the ritual of death concluding a criminal proceeding in the United States In this study Gordon Morris Bakken invites readers to an understanding of the death penalty in America with a collection of essays that trace the history and politics of this highly charged moral legal and cultural issue Bakken has solicited essays from historians political scientists and lawyers to ensure a broad treatment of the evolution of American cultural attitudes about crime and capital punishment Part one of this extensive analysis focuses on politics legal history multicultural issues and the international aspects of the death penalty Part two offers a regional analysis with essays that put death penalty issues into a geographic and cultural context Part three focuses on specific states with emphasis on the need to understand capital punishment in terms of state law development particularly because states determine on whom the death penalty will be imposed Part four examines the various means of death from hanging to lethal injection in state law case studies And finally part five focuses on the portrayal of capital punishment in popular culture California History,1998 Annual report on the police administration of the province of Assam Assam police dept,1875 Protestant School Leaders: A Qualitative Research about their Self-understanding Njobati, Frederick Fondzenyuy, The study is concerned with the self understanding of Protestant secondary school principals about their school leadership in the context of Cameroon where education is rooted in missionary and colonial times The debate at international level on whether or not none state schools are widening inequality gaps and whether school leadership is contributing to enlightenment or to fundamentalism matter in researching about the Protestant school profile and leadership The study therefore seeks to answer the research question What are the perceptions of secondary school principals of Protestant schools about their school leadership The research was conceptualized as exploratory and hypothesis generating within the qualitative approach It used semi structured interviews to collect data from 26 theoretically sampled secondary school principals The data was analyzed by qualitative content analysis using the grounded theory in an iterative deductive inductive way Through the generalization process of abduction and by a deep analysis of the empirical data the criteria which constitute the categories of quality first emerged Thereafter six ideal types of leading understanding were generated and consists of 1 call for superiority leadership 2 state conformational leadership 3 ecclesiastical leadership 4 community participatory leadership 5 vocation to serve leadership and 6 diaconal leadership Further analysis revealed a multi dimensional self understanding by principals on the Protestant ethos of schools and their leadership function Thus not all the six ideal leadership types are contributing to quality education On the one hand there are fundamentalist leaders focusing on normative aspects of discipline while on the other hand there are leaders promoting democratic values or working in a diaconal way promoting social justice Furthermore principals show little awareness of belonging to the church as a global institution Report on the Police Administration of Burma Burma. Police Dept,1895 Bombay Acts and Regulations: Bombay Regulations (1827-34) and Supreme Council Acts solely relating to Bombay (1834-94) Nānābhāi Jam'iyatram,1894 The Bengal Code Bengal (India),1890 The Living Age ,1887 The Acts and Ordinances of the Legislative Council of the Straits Settlements, from the 1st April 1867 to the 1st June 1886 Straits Settlements,1886
