Political Economy Of Basic Human Needs:

The Political Economy of Basic Human Needs Bruce Edward Moon, 1991 This volume reflects a new emphasis in development economics on conditions that promote the realization of human potential Moon defines development goals as attainment of basic needs and the reduction of absolute poverty He evaluates the effects of the state and political system as well as the role of the military in relation to these goals and makes a careful distinction between absolute poverty of basic needs deprivation and the relative poverty associated with income inequality Asserting that the normative case for concern with the poor is unassailable universal and compelling the author insists that the provision of basic needs may be necessary for rapid growth The volume includes a discussion of methodological premises in an appendix ISBN 0 8014 2448 8 45 00
