Political Identity Social Change:

Political Identity and Social Change Jamie Frueh, 2012-02-01 Political Identity and Social Change builds upon the constructivist theory of political identity to explore the social changes that accompanied the end of apartheid in South Africa To gain a better understanding of how structures of identity changed along with the rest of South Africa s institutions Frueh analyzes three social and political conflicts the Soweto uprisings of 1976 the reformist constitutional debates of 1983 1984 and post apartheid crime Analyzing these conflicts demonstrates how identity labels function as structures of social discourse how social activity is organized through these structures and how both the labels and their power have changed during the course of South Africa s transition In this way the book contributes not only to the study of South African society but also provides lessons about the relationship between identity and social change

Communication, Consumers, and Citizens: Revisiting the Politics of Consumption Dhavan V. Shah, Lewis Friedland, Chris Wells, Young Mie Kim, Hernando Rojas, 2012-12-04 Revisiting the Politics of Consumption The ANNALS of the American Academy of Political and Social Science Series

Memory Politics, Identity and Conflict Zheng Wang, 2017-10-10 This book focuses on the methodology of research on historical memory and contributes to theoretical discussions concerning the use of historical memory as a variable to explain political action and social movement The chapters of the book conceptualize the relationship between historical memory and national identity formation perceptions and policy making The author particularly analyses how contested memory and the related social discourse can lead to nationalism and international conflict Based on theories and research from multiple fields of studies this book proposes a series of analytic frameworks for the purpose of conceptualizing the functions of historical memory These analytic frameworks can help categorize measure and subsequently demonstrate the effects of historical memory This book also discusses how to use public opinion polls textbooks important texts and documents monuments and memory sites for conducting research to examine the functions of historical memory

Randolph Bourne and the Politics of Cultural Radicalism Leslie J. Vaughan, 1997 Reassesses the short life and career of American essayist critic and founder of cultural radicalism Bourne 1886 1918 known today mostly for his opposition to US military involvement in Europe and warnings about the military industrial complex Vaughan political science U of Minnesota Duluth argues that his stance from outside establishment perspectives was not a retreat from politics as many have claimed but a form of political engagement free from the suppositions that impede genuine debate and democratic change Annotation

Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation Charlotte Templin, 1995 Soon after its publication in 1973 Fear of Flying brought Erica Jong immense popular success and media fame Alternately pegged sassy and vulgar Jong's novel embraced the politics of the women's liberation movement and challenged the definition of female sexuality Yet today more than twenty years and several books later literary reputation continues for the most part to elude Jong Typecast by her adversaries as a media seeking sensationalist Erica Jong has been unfairly side stepped by academia Charlotte Templin contends In this carefully researched study augmented by personal interviews with Jong Templin assembles and analyzes the medley of responses to Jong s books by reviewers critics writers academics and the media by liberals conservatives and feminists She examines the diverse opinions on the merit and relevance to contemporary life of Fear of Flying the invocation of a high culture low culture dichotomy to discredit How to Save Your Own Life the anatomy of literary success with Fanny Jong s reception in a postfeminist age and the trivialization of Jong s works that is inevitable with mass media exposure Templin also shows how antagonistic reviewers tend to identify Jong with her fictitious characters a practice more common when the author is a woman and judge her to be guilty of the sin of not being a proper woman In turn she shows how reviewers reveal something of their own values and ideological biases in their critiques and how literary reputations are built destroyed and altered over time The first book to make a detailed examination of the reputation of a woman writer Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation provides an excellent case study for the literary reception of women writers within a broad cultural context Templin s analysis offers valuable insight into the reception of women writers especially commercially successful women writers and dramatically illustrates the relation of literary reputation to popular appeal and cultural mores Tradition, Change, and Modernity S.
