Political Power And Social Theory Volume 11:

Classes Erik Olin Wright, 2023-04-18 Class analysis and class struggle are central concepts in Marx's social theory yet notoriously Marx never wrote a systematic exposition of these terms during his lifetime and succeeding generations have had to piece together interpretations from his many scattered references and discussions. The problem of trying to develop a Marxist class analysis on this basis has been made all the more acute by changes in the class structure of advanced capitalism for these have thrown up a bewildering range of new social strata which seem to be difficult to reconcile with the many traditional understandings of class. In Classes Erik Olin Wright, one of the foremost Marxist sociologists and class theorists, rises to the twofold challenge of both clarifying the abstract structural account of class implicit in Marx and of applying and refining the account in the light of contemporary developments in advanced capitalist societies. Recentering the concept of class on the process of exploitation, Wright discusses his famous notion of contradictory class locations in relation to the empirical complexities of the middle class and he provides an analysis of class structure in post-capitalist societies. Wright then goes on to draw out the implications of his approach and to submit it to detailed empirical testing with the use of a trans-national survey of class structure and consciousness.

Die Willkür des Staates Stephan Hensell, 2009-03-03 Dieses Buch ist aus einem Projekt am Institut für Friedensforschung und Sicherheitspolitik an der Universität Hamburg IFSH hervorgegangen, das von 2003 bis 2006 von der Deutschen Forschungsgemeinschaft DFG sowie der Wissenschaftsförderung der Universität Hamburg finanziell unterstützt wurde. Es ist gleich eine bearbeitete Fassung meiner Dissertation, die ich im Januar 2008 an der Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin eingereicht habe. Der DFG, der Universität Hamburg und meinen Kolleginnen und Kollegen vom IFSH gilt mein Dank für die wohlwollende Förderung des Projektes. Danken möchte ich auch meinen Freunden, Mitarbeitern und Gesprächspartnern in Albanien und Georgien, die mich bei nicht leichten Feldforschungen vor Ort unterstützt haben. Mein Dank gilt ferner dem längst nicht mehr auf Hamburg beschränkten Mitgliederkreis der Arbeitsgemeinschaft Kriegsursachenforschung AKUF an der Universität Hamburg für die ebenso produktive wie freundschaftliche Zusammenarbeit der letzten Jahre. Nicht zuletzt danke ich aufrichtig meiner Familie vor allem meinem desperate workingwife für die Unterstützung und große Geduld während der Arbeit an diesem Buch.

Perverse Politics? Ann Shola Orloff, Raka Ray, Evren Savci, 2016-04-13 The papers collected here offer anti-imperialist feminist alternatives to second-wave feminism's often reductive understandings of freedom, emancipation, oppression, empowerment, and democracy.

Postcolonial Sociologies Julian Go, 2016-08-26 How can postcolonial thought be most fruitfully translated and incorporated into sociology? This special volume brings together leading sociologists to offer some answers and examples. The chapters offer new postcolonial readings of canonical thinkers like Karl Marx, Max Weber, Emile Durkheim, and Robert Park.

Hess, 2014-07-14 This issue of Political Power and Social Theory explores the changes in science associated with the rise of neoliberalism since the 1970s The collected papers together chart an important theoretical agenda for future research in the study of science/society relations in the contemporary era

Science and the Sociology of Knowledge (RLE Social Theory) Michael Mulkay, 2014-08-07 How far is scientific knowledge a product of social life In addressing this question the major contributors to the sociology of knowledge have agreed that the conclusions of science are dependent on social action only in a very special and limited sense In Science and the Sociology of Knowledge Michael Mulkay's first aim is to identify the philosophical assumptions which have led to this view of science as special and to present a systematic critique of the standard philosophical account of science showing that there are no valid epistemological grounds for excluding scientific knowledge from the scope of sociological analysis The rest of the book is devoted to developing a preliminary interpretation of the social creation of scientific knowledge The processes of knowledge creation are delineated through a close examination of recent case studies of scientific developments Dr Mulkay argues that knowledge is produced by means of negotiation the outcome of which depends on the participants use of social as well as technical resources The analysis also shows how cultural resources are taken over from the broader social milieu and incorporated into the body of certified knowledge and how in the political context of society at large scientists technical as well as social claims are conditioned and affected by their social position
