Public Administration Debated:

CONTEMPORARY DEBATES IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION ALKA DHAMEJA, 2003-01-01 Public administration is reeling under complex challenges and pressures in the face of the changing trends in liberalization privatization and globalization As a pertinent area of social sciences it is in search of a new identity in the form of theoretical bases conceptual clarity and contextual applicability The development of the discipline is characterized by failed semi developed and recycled narratives which are unable to provide any well defined epistemological parameters Whatever one finds in the form of conceptual and applied growth in public administration especially pertaining to the Third World appears to be borrowed imitated and implemented out of context The discipline of public administration must therefore reinvent itself in the wake of new developments in the areas of theory building organizational reforms information technology participatory development corporate ethics humane governance responsive administration non state organizations and administrative capability This book makes an attempt to grapple with some of these contemporary concerns in order to generate a debate on the impact of globalization on public administration A collection of diverse topics that address various facets of public administration the overall thrust is on developing indigenous approaches for meeting the growing demands of the changing scenario The wide range of issues covered in the volume makes for a comprehensive view of the various perceptions within the discipline of public administration The book will be of immense use to students academicians researchers policy makers and practitioners in public administration

Debating Public Administration Robert F. Durant, Jennifer R.S. Durant, 2012-10-26 Dialog between practitioners and academics has increasingly become the exception rather than the rule in contemporary public administration circles Bridging the gap between theory and practice Debating Public Administration Management Challenges Choices and Opportunities tackles some of the major management challenges choices and opportunities of the twenty first century facing public managers across various subfields of public administration Informed by contemporary pressures on public managers to reconceptualize purpose redefine administrative rationality recapitalize human assets reengage resources and revitalize democratic constitutionalism the book offers students practitioners and researchers an opportunity to take stock and ponder the future of practice and research in public administration Organized by three sets of major management challenges facing the field Rethinking Administrative Rationality in a Democratic Republic Recapitalizing Organizational Capacity and Reconceptualizing Institutions for New Policy Challenges the book takes an uncommon approach to the study of these topics In it leading practitioners and academics comment on condensed versions of articles appearing in the Theory to Practice feature of Public Administration Review PAR from 2006 through 2011 The authors and commentators focus on some of the best current research draw lessons from that literature for practice and identify gaps in research that need to be addressed They expertly draw out themes issues problems and prospects providing bulleted lessons and practical takeaways This makes the book a unique one stop resource for cross disciplinary cross sectoral and cross professional exchanges on contemporary challenges
