Poetics Documenta X The:

Photography between Poetry and Politics Hilde van Gelder, Helen Westgeest, 2008 Lieven Gevaert Series 7 Does photography have a hybrid or chameleonic character because it can be part of entirely different mixed media works of art Photography as a medium is faced with the challenge of escaping from its too frequent use as rather noncommittal and poetic visual imagery How best might photographers proceed to maintain the integrity of their art A distinguished group of art historians art theorists and specialists in contemporary photography address these issues in Photography between Poetry and Politics They suggest that by raising a critical debate on the internal workings of the artistic system itself or on broader social problems photographers might be able to transcend both political and aesthetic concerns and so revitalize their art form and regain its autonomy

The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to Documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the inbuilt tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes

The Politics and Poetics of Cinematic Realism Hermann Kappelhoff, 2015-08-11 Hermann Kappelhoff casts the evolution of cinema as an ongoing struggle to relate audiences to their historical moment Appreciating cinema's unique ability to bind concrete living conditions to individual experience which existing political institutions cannot he reads films by Sergei Eisenstein and Pedro Almodóvar by the New Objectivity and the New Hollywood to demonstrate how cinema situates spectators within society Kappelhoff applies the Deleuzian practice of thinking in images to his analysis of films and incorporates the approaches of Jacques Rancière and Richard Rorty who see politics in the permanent reconfiguration of poetic forms This enables him to conceptualize film as a medium that continually renews the audiovisual spaces and temporalities through which audiences confront reality Revitalizing the reading of films by Visconti Fassbinder Kubrick Friedkin and others Kappelhoff affirms cinema's historical significance while discovering its engagement with politics as a realm of experience

Decolonial Cultural Practices Towards Pluriversal Cultural Institutions

and Policies Meike Lettau, Özlem Canyürek, 2024-12-31 The book critically examines the epistemological disparities between colonialism and capitalism critical cultural practices and Western art institutions It does so through the lens of documenta 15 focusing on ruangrupa's lumbung approach which confronts Eurocentric cultural norms and stimulates a shift towards pluriversal horizons demonstrating the transformative potential of alternative methodologies This book provides a comprehensive understanding of how collective methods and practices can cultivate pluriversal horizons in cultural institutions and policies informed by extensive field research at documenta 15 The key elements of the approach include interdisciplinary perspectives linking theory and practice and exploring under-discussed dimensions of epistemological disparities It offers practical and theoretical insights into the development of frameworks for cultural practices and policies critical of coloniality and discrimination recognizes the coexistence of equally valuable epistemes and aims to dismantle Eurocentric structures in the cultural sector This valuable contribution presents relevant insights for those interested in decolonial studies diversity frameworks in cultural institutions and individuals engaged in the critique and transformation of Eurocentric practices within the cultural sector It will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners in fields such as cultural studies sociology political science cultural geography cultural policy and art education as well as professionals and policymakers

Politics in South Asia Siegfried O. Wolf, Jivanta Schöttli, Dominik Frommherz, Kai Fürstenberg, Marian Gallenkamp, Lion König, Markus Pauli, 2014-11-10 The book introduces central themes that have preoccupied the field of South Asian politics over the last few decades and identifies new emerging areas of research Presenting both general political theory and context specific case studies the collection draws attention to the methodological challenges of working on an area specific theme and the importance of generating generalizable insights linked to theory Hence it will be of interest for political scientists working on South Asian politics as well as on other non Western societies The collection represents an unusually broad survey of scholarship emerging from a range of leading academic centres in the field

50 Jahre Documenta, 1955-2005: Archive in motion : Documenta-Handbuch, 2005 Art & Visual Culture 1850-2010 Tate Publishing (London, England), 2012 Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey this title approaches the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences functions and cross cultural contexts It includes essays which engage directly with topical issues around art and gender globalisation cultural difference and curating
