We, the Data Wendy H. Wong, 2023-10-10 A rallying call for extending human rights beyond our physical selves and why we need to reboot rights in our data-intensive world. Winner of the 2024 Balsillie Prize for Public Policy, Shortlisted 2024 Lionel Gelber Prize. Our data-intensive world is here to stay, but does that come at the cost of our humanity in terms of autonomy, community, dignity, and equality? In We the Data, Wendy H. Wong argues that we cannot allow that to happen. Exploring the pervasiveness of data collection and tracking, Wong reminds us that we are all stakeholders in this digital world who are currently being left out of the most pressing conversations around technology, ethics, and policy. This book clarifies the nature of datafication and calls for an extension of human rights to recognize how data complicate what it means to safeguard and encourage human potential. As we go about our lives, we are co-creating data through what we do. We must embrace that these data are a part of who we are. Wong explains even as current policies do not yet reflect the extent to which human experiences have changed. This means we are more than mere subjects or sources of data by products that can be harvested and used by technology companies and governments. By exploring data rights, facial recognition technology, our posthumous rights, and our need for a right to data literacy, Wong has crafted a compelling case for engaging as stakeholders to hold data collectors accountable. Just as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights laid the global groundwork for human rights, We the Data gives us a foundation upon which we claim human rights in the age of data. Newsweek, 2009 PC World, 2008-07 American Independent Baker, 1918 The New York Times Magazine, 2008 The Nation, 1984-07 Hit List Sarah Cortez, Liz Martínez, 2009 In Lucha Corpi's story Hollow Point, at the Synapses, her unique narrator, a bullet describes the instant before killing a young Peruvian woman. I feel the pull of the hammer. The pressure mounts. I am now in place. The moment is upon me. Swiftly and efficiently, I will do what I must, what I was created for. In an instant, I am off traveling at a speed reserved only for death. This groundbreaking anthology of short fiction by Latino mystery writers, Hit List: The Best of Latino Mystery, features an intriguing and unpredictable cast of sleuths, murderers, and crime victims. Reflecting the authors' and society's preoccupation with identity, self, and territory, the stories run the gamut of the mystery genre, from traditional to noir, from the private investigator to the police procedural, and even a chick lit mystery. The Right Profile features a Miami private investigator who goes undercover.

to prove a deadbeat father can pay child support and she delights in testifying against him in court In The Skull of Pancho Villa someone has stolen the family heirloom and it's up to Gus Corral to get it back And in A New York Chicano a successful bachelor from El Paso a graduate of NYU working for Merrill Lynch in Manhattan gets his revenge against a xenophobic newscaster Hit List collects for the first time short fiction by many of the Latino authors who have been pioneers in the mystery genre using it to showcase their unique cultures neighborhoods and realities Contributors include award winning writers such as Carolina Garcia Aguilera Alicia Gaspar de Alba Rolando Hinojosa Manuel Ramos and Sergio Troncoso as well as emerging writers who deserve more recognition
