Democracy Promotion and the Normative Power Europe Framework Marek Neuman, 2018-07-20 This book presents a topical holistic assessment of the European Union's democracy promotion in South East Europe Eastern Europe and Central Asia analyzed through the prism of the Normative Power Europe NPE framework of transnational policy formation To do so it brings together three scholarly domains that traditionally stand apart and are discussed separately The first addresses the notion of the European Union conducting a normatively driven foreign policy both near and far abroad The second is concerned with the legitimacy operationality and effectiveness of promoting democracy in third world countries The third addresses the quality of the relationship the European Union has been able to establish with some vital yet often troubled countries in South East Europe Eastern Europe and Central Asia Finally based on the empirical findings presented in each chapter this volume concludes by rethinking the concept and relevance of NPE to the field's understanding of the EU's foreign policy making This edited volume offers the reader both a theoretically and empirically rich analysis of the European Union's efforts to promote democracy abroad As such is scholars and students of EU studies particularly EU foreign policy as well as policy makers at EU and national level and civil society representatives responsible for designing implementing democracy promoting projects on the ground

Transactions of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science National Association for the Promotion of Social Science (Great Britain), 1883 The volume for 1886 contains the proceedings of the Conference on temperance legislation London 1886 Resources in education, 1983-07 Democracy Promotion in the EU's Neighbourhood Sandra Lavenex, Frank Schimmelfennig, 2013-09-13 EU external democracy promotion has traditionally been based on linkage i.e. bottom up support for democratic forces in third countries and leverage i.e. the top down inducement of political elites towards democratic reforms through political conditionality The advent of the European Neighbourhood Policy and new forms of association have introduced a new third model of democracy promotion which rests in functional cooperation between administrations This volume comparatively defines and assesses these three models of external democracy promotion in the EU's relations with its eastern and southern neighbours It argues that while linkage has hitherto failed to produce tangible outcomes and the success of leverage has basically been tied to an EU membership perspective the governance model of democracy promotion bears greater potential beyond the circle of candidate countries This third approach while not tackling the core institutions of the political system as such but rather promoting transparency accountability and participation at the level of state administration may turn out to remain the EU's most tangible form of democratic governance promotion in the future This book was originally published as a special issue of Democratization
