Shamans Prophets And Sages:

Shamans, Prophets, and Sages Denise Lardner Carmody, John Carmody, 1974 Drama and Power in a Hunting Society Anne Chapman, 1982-11-11 The Selk nam people now virtually extinct are a classic example of hunting societies The book is based on the author s field work among the last surviving pure Selk nam as well as an exhaustive review of the previous literature Archetypes of Wisdom Douglas J. Soccio, 1995 Based on the conviction that philosophy matters and that people respond to the language of wisdom this text returns to the essence of the philosophical impulse the search for wisdom With this powerful interpreting theme a chronological sequence and a storytelling approach this book begins where todays students are in terms of interests backgrounds and abilities and draws them into the world of philosophy Whenever possible topics and passages are selected that touch on fundamental concerns of the human condition When Religion Becomes Lethal Charles Kimball, 2011-02-25 A compelling look at today s complex relationship between religion and politics In his second book bestselling author Charles Kimball addresses the urgent global problem of the interplay between fundamentalist Abrahamic religions and politics and moves beyond warning signs the subject of his first book to the dangerous and lethal outcomes that their interaction can produce Drawing on his extensive personal and professional knowledge of experience with and access to all three traditions Kimball s explanation of the multiple ways religion and politics interconnect within Judaism Christianity and Islam will illuminate the problems and give readers a hopeful vision for how to chart a safer course into a precarious future Kimball is the author of When Religion Becomes Evil one of the most acclaimed post 9 11 books on terrorism and religion Reveals why religion so often leads to deadly results The author has scholarly knowledge and expertise and extensive personal experience with the peoples cultures and leaders involved Readable and engaging this book gives a clear picture of today s complex political and religious reality and offers hope for the future The Life of a Galilean Shaman Pieter F Craffert, 2010-02-25 The aim of historical Jesus research is to identify the authentic material from which the historical figure as a social type underneath the overlay is constructed Pieter Craffert s anthropological historiography offers an alternative framework for dealing with Jesus of Nazareth as a social personage fully embedded in a first century Mediterranean worldview and the Gospels as cultural artefacts related to this figure This cross cultural model represents a religious pattern that refers to a family of features for describing those religious entrepreneurs who based on regular Altered State of Consciousness experiences perform a specific set of social functions in their communities A Stranger in Jerusalem Trevan G. Hatch, 2019-06-26 In A Stranger in Jerusalem Trevan Hatch attempts to situate the stories about Jesus within their Jewish context Jesus was a Jew his friends were Jews his first followers were Jews he studied the Hebrew Scriptures either orally or from texts he worshiped in the synagogue and he occasionally traveled to Jerusalem to observe the Israelite festivals Hatch illustrates that Jesus does not seem to have rejected Judaism or acted as a radical outsider in relation to his Jewish peers but rather he worked within a Jewish framework The overarching questions addressed in this book are 1 how can an understanding of early Judaism illuminate our understanding of the Jesus traditions 2 how did Jesus relate to his Jewish world and vice versa 3 why did the Gospel writers portray Jesus and his Jewish peers the way they did and 4 how would Jews in the first and second centuries have interpreted the Jesus traditions upon hearing or reading them Hatch explores several topics including childhood and family life in first century Galilee Jewish notions of baptism and purity Jewish prophets and miracle workers Jewish ideas about the messiah and Jesus relationship with Judas the Pharisees the priestly establishment in Jerusalem the Jewish populace and his own disciples

The War Within - Between Good and Evil Bhimeswara Challa, The human has always prided himself as an exceptional moral species but has always been haunted by two questions Why am I not good when I want to be why do I do bad when I don't want to This is at the heart of what scriptures and sages have long alluded to as the eternal internal struggle between good and evil that wages in the human consciousness The book posits that much of our confusion and angst stems from our inability to recognize the ramifications of this war between two sides of our own self It is because we are ignoring this war between two sides of our own self It is because we are ignoring this war that we are losing all other wars of the world That ignorance is the primary source of all the horrors malevolence and violence that fill us with so much dread But a favorable outcome is possible only if the forces of goodness are aided to get an upper hand consistently and that calls for two cathartic changes consciousness change by inducing a turn from the mind to the heart and contextual change by radically reconstructing the roles of morality money and mortality in our everyday lives The book offers a menu of insights and options we all can use to tilt the scales in the war waging inside each of us

Outsider Art Daniel Wojcik, 2016-08-25 Outsider art has exploded onto the international art scene gaining widespread attention for its startling originality and visual power As an expression of raw creativity outsider art remains associated with self-taught visionaries psychiatric patients trance mediums eccentric outcasts and unschooled artistic geniuses who create things outside of mainstream artistic trends and styles Outsider Art Visionary Worlds and Trauma provides a comprehensive guide through the contested terrain of outsider art and the related domains of art brut visionary art art of the insane and folk art The book examines the history and primary issues of the field as well as explores the intersection between culture and individual creativity that is at the very heart of outsider art definitions and debates Daniel Wojcik's interdisciplinary study challenges prevailing assumptions about the idiosyncratic status of outsider artists This wide-ranging investigation of the art and lives of those labeled outsiders focuses on the ways that personal tragedies and suffering have inspired the art-making process In some cases trauma has triggered a creative transformation that has helped artists confront otherwise overwhelming life events Additionally Wojcik's study illustrates how vernacular traditions religious worldviews ethnic heritage and popular culture have influenced such art With its detailed consideration of personal motivations cultural milieu and the potentially therapeutic aspects of art-making this volume provides a deeper understanding of the artistic impulse and human creativity

The Republic of Many Mansions Denise

Lardner Carmody, John Carmody, 1990 Examines the origins assumptions and consequences of three major concepts in American religious history the Puritan judgement of human nature the Enlightenment disestablishment of religion and the definition of truth of American Pragmatism The lives and beliefs of Jonathan Edwards Thomas Jefferson and William James fully characterize these three mainstream religious principles In unique counterpoint the Carmodys bring into the discussion the many religious and secular groups that were not and still are not part of the primarily white Protestant male historical tradition Catholics Jews Muslims Buddhists women African Americans and others The Republic of Many Mansions concludes that the future of American religious culture lies in a collective and ongoing dialogue among the many voices active in the American religious landscape

Search Without Idols W. Horosz, 2012-12-06 Search Without Idols is a study of human transcendence in the context of human striving projecting surpassing overcoming This power is central to man s search for wholeness Such transcendence makes reality tolerable It provides us with m impressive array of human responses which enable us to cope But it also provides the excesses that go beyond human striving Nothing seems to be off limits to this ubiquitous power Such a state of surpassing limits is what we find in the relation between the human search for wholeness and the quest for external totalities which lies beyond the human context Such soaring flights beyond the capacity of human striving are hard to control impossible to show responsibility for and beyond the reach of criteria The reach exceeds both our grasp and our control Transcendence then is a greatly used and much abuse human power Its activities have never ceased to amaze me its excesses have always troubled me even from the beginning of my studies This book is not an exercise in self clarification I have some thoughts on the matter which I wish to share with the reader Perhaps we can mutually appreciate the great gift without compromising our sanity Part I will provide a new look at the meaning of transcendence

Tracing Common Themes John Braisted Carman, Steven P. Hopkins, 1991 Originally published by Scholars Press Now Available from Duke University Press This volume focuses theoretically and practically on thematic approaches for teaching comparative courses in religion It seeks to address the impact that the comparative study of religion has had on the humanities how it has fared in the various pedagogic shifts discerned in the liberal arts over the last decade and how the study of religion can serve to globalize humanities education in our increasingly culturally and religiously plural world Contributors Linda Barnes Karen McCarthy Brown John B Carman Richard M Carp John E Cort William R Darrow Kendall W Folkert William A Graham Steven P Hopkins John Stratton Hawley Mark Juergensmeyer Miriam Levering Robin W Lovin Richard R Niebuhr Thomas V Peterson Frank E Reynolds Frederick J Streng Michael D Swartz Lee H Yearly Carol Zaleski

Character and Community Development Gordon G. Vessels, 1998-08-27 This book provides the conceptual theoretical and methodological foundation that teachers principals professors and students preparing for teaching will need in order to be informed and effective planners and evaluators of character education programs and good character educators Through its clear definition of terms review of Constitutional and public support comparative analysis of philosophical approaches synthesis of many relevant theories of child development K 12 core curriculum description of many instructional strategies and methodology for program evaluation this handbook effectively prepares prospective program planners and character educators to create comprehensive programs that are developmentally appropriate adapted to the unique needs and characteristics of school communities and soundly evaluated Dr Vessels presents a wide range of options developmental and practical guidelines for choosing from among these options and a creative core curriculum and evaluation technology that he hopes school community members will find useful for their particular school or system

Functional Images of the Religious Educator Timothy Arthur Lines, 1992 FUNCTIONAL IMAGES OF THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATOR is one of those rare and precious books which helps religious educators explore and clarify their own special identity as religious educators This special identity is revealed in ten basic functional roles which are central to religious education enactment The author shows that while religious educators perform most and possibly all these ten basic functional roles nonetheless one predominates This dominant role plus the way the religious educator harmoniously integrates the other roles into the dominant one is the key to each religious educator's own special identity

Peace and Justice in the Scriptures of the World Religions Denise Lardner Carmody, John Carmody, 1988 Peace and justice in the scriptures of the world religions explores the important scriptural texts from the Hindi Bhagava Gita the Buddhist Dhammapada the Confucian Analects the Taoist Te Ching the Jewish Talmud and the Muslim Qur'an to reveal their wisdom about how human beings may live together in peace and justice The authors Denise Lardner Carmody and John Tully Carmody provide the historical and philosophical background for each tradition and scripture Throughout it emerges that all the texts stress the conversion of the individual to the wisdom the tradition preaches The beginnings of peace and justice are believed to lie in one's spirituality The authors also sum up how such personal conversions require structural change in society if they are to be socially effective The point so strongly made is that the world can share a common ethic
