Loanwords in the Chinese Language Shi Youwei, 2020-12-30 A loanword or wailaici is a word with similar meaning and phonetic form to a word from a foreign language that has been naturalized in the recipient language From ancient times cultural exchanges between China and other countries has brought and integrated a myriad of loanwords to the Chinese language Approaching the topic from a diachronic perspective this volume is the first book length work to chart the developmental trajectory features functions and categories of loanwords into Chinese Beginning with a general introduction to the Chinese loanword system the author delves deeper to explore trends and standardization in Chinese loanword studies and the research landscape of contemporary loanword studies more generally Combining theoretical reflections with real life examples of Chinese loanwords the author discusses not only long established examples from the dictionary but also a great number of significant loanwords adopted in the 21st century The author shows how the complexity of the Chinese loanword system is intertwined with the intricacies of the Chinese character system This title will be an essential reference for students scholars and general readers who are interested in Chinese loanwords linguistics and language and culture

Vernacular Chinese-Character Manuscripts from East and Southeast Asia David Holm, 2024-07-22 This collection brings together studies on vernacular manuscripts in regional Chinese dialects such as Cantonese and Hokkien South Fujian dialect those of non Han peoples in China and Southeast Asia such as the Zhuang and Yao and a vernacular character manuscript in Vietnamese Across this wide range the focus is on manuscripts written in regional and vernacular adaptations of the Chinese script Three chapters on Yao manuscripts each focus on a different aspect of their use in local society or on collections of Yao manuscripts in overseas collections there are three chapters on Zhuang and related Tai languages two studies on Hokkien one on the Cantonese script in contemporary Hong Kong and one on a Buddhist manuscript with Vietnamese commentary from a temple in Bangkok Detailed descriptions of traditional paper manufacture in the villages are given for both the Yao and the Zhuang as well as paper analysis used to date a Vietnamese manuscript Coverage includes information about the physicality of the manuscripts investigated and the vernacular Chinese scripts in which they are written but also a wealth of information about their use and significance in local society This collection will be of interest to scholars and students interested in the philological analysis of East and Southeast Asian character scripts and manuscript traditions but also the broader social contexts of manuscript use in traditional and modern society

Handbook for Asian Studies Specialists Noriko Asato, 2013-10-08 An indispensable tool for librarians who do reference or collection management this work is a pioneering offering of expertly selected print and electronic reference tools for East Asian Studies Chinese Japanese and Korean Handbook for Asian Studies Specialists A Guide to Research Materials and Collection Building Tools is the first work to cover reference works for the main Asian area languages of China Japan and Korea Several leading Asian Studies librarians have contributed their many decades of experience to create a resource that gathers major reference titles both print and online that would be useful to today's Asian Studies librarian. Organized by language group, it offers useful information on the many subscription-based and open source electronic tools relevant to Asian Studies. This book will serve as an essential resource for reference collections at academic libraries. Previously published bibliographies on materials deal with China or Japan or Korea but none have coalesced information on all three countries into one work or are written in English. And unlike the other resources available, this work provides the insight needed for librarians to make informed collection management decisions and reference selections.

Cultures, Ideologies, and the Dictionary Braj B. Kachru, Henry Kahane, 2013-03-01. A pioneering volume addressing issues related to cultures, ideologies, and the dictionary. A cross-cultural and cross-linguistic study with focus on selected Western and non-Western languages. A number of in-depth case studies illustrate the dominant role ideology and other types of bias play in the making of a dictionary. The volume includes invited papers of 40 internationally recognized scholars.

Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson, 2000. Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China. In this latest edition, now in a bigger format, its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text. Twelve years in the making, the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted, excavated, and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century. It also examines the context in which the sources were produced, preserved, and received, the problems of research and interpretation associated with them, and the best most up-to-date secondary works. Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture, special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography.

Buddhaksetraparisodhana Charles DiSimone, Nicholas Witkowski, 2024-11-25. Buddhaksetraparisodhana is a volume in honor of the Buddhologist and Philologist Paul M. Harrison. George Edwin Burnell, Professor of Religious Studies at Stanford University, the contributions of twenty-nine of his colleagues, students, and friends from across the globe are dedicated to his academic interests and represent a cross-section of the disciplines that have been so heavily influenced by Paul Harrison's scholarship in the past decades: Buddhist Studies, Indology, Sinology, Tibetology, and Art History.
