A. Carson, 2016 In this volume thirty seven first rate evangelical scholars present a thorough study of biblical authority and a full range of issues connected to it Recognizing that Scripture and its authority are now being both challenged and defended with renewed vigor editor D A Carson assigned the topics that these select scholars address in the book After an introduction by Carson to the many facets of the current discussion the contributors present robust essays on relevant historical biblical theological philosophical epistemological and comparative religions topics To conclude Carson answers a number of frequently asked questions about the nature of Scripture cross referencing these FAQs to the preceding chapters This comprehensive volume by a team of recognized experts will be the go to reference on the nature and authority of the Bible for years to come Amazon The Sign of the Gospel W. Travis McMaken, 2013-08-01 The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth's theology none more so than the doctrine of baptism Barth's proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth's larger dogmatic project McMaken takes up this controversial question sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine and Barth's systematic work and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights notably from Barth's mature theological commitments Pivotal to this volume claims that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth's theology this new perspective as well holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation. A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology, ecumenical studies and sacramental theology. Beeke, 1991 Against the backdrop of the magisterial Reformers with special attention to Calvin Dr Beeke examines the theological development of personal assurance of faith from 1600-1760 in English Puritanism and its parallel movement in the Netherlands the so called Second Reformation. In depth studies and comparisons of William Perkins Willem Teellinck the Westminster Confession John Owen Alexander Comrie and Thomas Goodwin convincingly demonstrate with fresh insights that the differences between Calvin and English Dutch Calvinism on assurance arose primarily from a newly evolving pastoral context rather than from foundational variations in doctrine. By a careful study of the role of God's promises the practical and mystical syllogisms and the witness of the Spirit this study breaks new ground in revealing how English and Dutch Calvinism developed a biblically balanced doctrine of assurance which the Christian church sorely needs today.
